

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Secretary presented the Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE AND PROPERTY OF THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION OF NEW YORK, FOR THE YEAR ENDING SEPTEMBER 23, 1907.

The following is a list of the various Trusts:

Diocesan House, 416 Lafayette Street, and an Endowment Fund of $50,000, the income of which is to be expended for its support and maintenance. The real estate is leased to the Archdeacon of New York, and the entire income paid to him.

Land, Church Building, Rectory, Parish House and Schoolhouse at Eighty-ninth Street and Madison Avenue, leased to the Church of the Beloved Disciple. Endowment Fund and securities of the par value of $186,493.03, the income of which is to be applied to the maintenance and preservation of the church and its work, but no income shall be expended for alterations to the church or for a Mission Church.

Land, Burial Plot and Glebe Plot, with Church Building, Parish House and Rectory, near Scarborough, Westchester County, leased to St. Mary's Church, Beechwood. Endowment Fund of $9,206.82, the income to be expended for repairs and conducting services in the church.

Land, Church Buildings and Rectory at Montrose, Westchester County, occupied by the Church of the Divine Love.

Land and Church Buildings at Verplancks, Westchester County, occupied by the Chapel of St. Barnabas.

Land and Church Buildings at Rosendale, Ulster County, occupied by All Saints' Church.

Land and Church Buildings at Yonkers, leased to Christ Church.

Land and Church Building at Tuxedo Park, occupied by St. Mary's Church.

Land at Ellenville, Ulster County, with Church Building and Rectory, leased to St. John's Memorial Church.

Land and Church Building at Newburgh, leased to the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Endowment Fund of $5,500, the income to be paid semi-annually to the Pastor, Rector, or other head of St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church, in the town of Bedford, Westchester County, in addition to his regular salary.

Land and Church Building known as the Worthington Memorial Church of St. Joseph of Arimathea, in the town of Greenburgh. Endowment Fund of $5,000, the income of which is to be applied to the repair and maintenance of the church and grounds.

The title to the land occupied by St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal Church, of Mamaroneck, Westchester County, is to revert to this corporation upon the failure of the parish, which holds a conditional title, to carry out the terms of the grants of the property.

Endowment Fund for this parish, consisting of bonds of the West Shore Railroad Company, of the par value of $4,500, the income to be applied to the expenses of the parish.

Endowment Fund, All Angels' Church, New York City. This fund is to accumulate until it amounts to $50,000. It amounts at this date to $24,535.38.

Land at Yonkers, New York, with Church Buildings, and a Mission Chapel at Lincoln Park, leased to St. Andrew's Memorial Church, and also an Endowment Fund of $25,000, to be held as a memorial to William F. Cochran, the income to be paid to the corporation of St. Andrew's Memorial Church. November, 1906, an additional plot, to be held for the benefit of this church, was conveyed by Mrs. Eva S. Cochran.

Loomis Memorial Chapel (known as the Church of St. Luke the Beloved Physician), to be held as a memorial to Dr. Alfred L. Loomis. The property is situated at Liberty, New York, at the Loomis Sanitarium, which agrees to maintain the property and provide necessary services. Endowment Fund of $10,000 for the support of the church.

Property on the south side of East Eighty-eighth Street east of Second Avenue, held by St. James' Church. This corporation holds a reversionary interest in this property in case the Church corporation should fail to comply with the terms of the deed of gift. Endowment Fund of $200,000, to be invested and the income paid over to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. James' Church, to be applied to the use, maintenance and support of said property in East Eighty-eighth Street.

Endowment Fund of $89,086.64, the income to be paid to St. James' Church so long as it shall be entitled under the terms of the agreement to receive the same, and afterwards to Trinity Church Corporation of the City of New York.

Land at Harrison, Westchester County, New York, with Church Buildings thereon, known as All Saints' Church, leased to Rev. William W. Kirkby, Frank German, James A. Burnham and William H. Beers, who agreed to maintain the property in repair and provide church services. Endowment Fund consisting of three bonds of $1,000 each, American Telephone and Telegraph Company four per cent. collateral trust, and $11,364.08 in cash, all to be held and the income paid over for the support of the church.

Church of the Holy Apostles—Endowment Fund. This fund was received in 1901, to hold until with the accumulations it amounted to $20,000, after which the income of the fund was to be paid to the Treasurer of the Church of the Holy Apostles, to be expended by him for the general running expenses of said church. This fund at the present time, with accumulations of interest, amounts to $20,000, and the income has been paid to the Treasurer of the Church.

Also two bonds of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway for $1,000 each, bearing five per cent. interest, the income to be paid to the Rector of the Church of the Holy Apostles, to be used for the Fresh Air Work of the parish; and a $1,000 bond of the City of New York, the income to be applied for the benefit of the Sunday-school of the parish, the fund to be known as the "John P. Collard Fund."

Fund of $5,000, held under the will of Elizabeth D. Eaton, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be used to provide fitting and proper burial of the poor connected with that parish.

Fund of $10,000, received under the will of Mary Beach Tousey, the income to be paid to the Rector of St. Clement's Church, New York, to be expended in the employment of a competent and devout woman to care for the poor and sick in the neighborhood of said church.

Endowment Fund for the benefit of St. John's Church, Yonkers, invested in registered bonds of the West Shore Railroad Company of the par value of $50,000, the income to be paid to the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of St. John's Church in the City of Yonkers.

St. Andrew's Church at Richmond, Staten Island. Received from Robert Fleming Crooks one three per cent. Northern Pacific general lien bond for $1,000, the income to be paid to the Rector or Treasurer of St. Andrew's Protestant Episcopal Church at Richmond, Staten Island, to be by him expended for the special care of the burial plot belonging to Robert Fleming Crooks in the churchyard and for the benefit of the church, with the hope that the Cross, Memorial Window and Tablet will be cared for in years to come.

St. Stephen's Church, in the City of New York—Endowment Fund, amounting to $87,500. Under the terms of an agreement made in March, 1907, the proceeds of the sale of No. 125 Greenwich Street were received, to be held for the benefit of St. Stephen's Church, the income to be paid to that church, and in case St. Stephen's Church Corporation shall cease to exist, then the fund to revert to Trinity Church Corporation.

The term of office of two of the trustees, George R. Schieffelin and J. Pierpont Morgan, have expired October 1, 1907, and two persons should be elected by the Convention for the term of four years to succeed them.

Mr. George R. Schieffelin, owing to his ill health, has presented his resignation as a member of the Board, and, though requested to do so by the Secretary, has declined to withdraw his resignation on that account, and stated that he hopes he will not be re-elected one of the trustees.

The Treasurer's Report, submitted herewith, and dated September 19, 1907, shows in his charge securities and cash of the estimated value of $800,481.81.

Gross income collected, $30,406.78.

The Treasurer's accounts have been examined and found correct by the Executive Committee, consisting of J. Pierpont Morgan and John T. Atterbury.

Dated New York, November 11, 1907.

HENRY LEWIS MORRIS,
Secretary.

The Treasurer of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York begs leave to present the following report of the trust funds in his hands for the year ending September 19, 1907:

The Trustees further report that while there is a surplus of income from the Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen, many applications made for relief for widows and children are of necessity denied, for the reason that the annual collection devoted to this purpose, and other income received on account of this fund, are insufficient to meet the proper demands upon it. During the past year the income of the Widows' and Children's Fund was insufficient to pay their stipends, and the Trustees transferred the sum of $1,700 from the income account of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund to the Widows' and Children's Fund, as is shown by this report. The Trustees respectfully request the Convention to ratify and approve this transfer. As conditions which made this transfer necessary will again arise, the Trustees respectfully urge that Section 5 of Canon XIX. be amended as indicated in the following resolution:

Resolved, That Section 5 of Canon XIX., entitled, 'Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy' be and the same hereby is amended by striking out the period after the last word of said section, and adding the following words: 'Except that the Trustees may at any time in their discretion apply the surplus income from the Fund for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen to the needs of the beneficiaries of the Fund for the Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese.'

The Trustees refer with great regret to the death of Mr. William N.

Wilmer, for many years a member of this corporation. He gave freely of his services to promote the welfare of this corporation, and devoted his time, energy and means without stint to many good works.

It has been suggested that the name of this corporation be changed. It is intimated that the clergy entitled to relief are deterred from making application because they do not care to admit that they are aged and infirm. The change of name would necessitate action by the Legislature. The Trustees submit this matter to the Convention for such action as may be deemed necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

The resolution offered by the Committee in relation to a change of Canon XIX. was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parks moved a resolution approving the action of the Committee transferring funds for the income of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund to that of the Widows and Orphans', which was adopted.

The resolution in regard to the change of the name of the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund was referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. R. B. Kimber presented the Report of the City Mission Society.

THE SEVENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY.

In presenting this report the idea cannot be too strongly emphasized that we are not an independent organization to the story of whose progress, year by year, you listen with interest. We are the representatives of each of your parishes, commissioned to do the work which you are unable to do yourselves, and this report is an accounting to you of our stewardship for the year that is past.

What rector here, or what member of his clergy staff, is able to minister the Word and Sacraments to the sick of his parish or neighborhood in the hospitals of the city?

Which one of you can minister to the little ones whom God has to a greater or less degree deprived of the light of reason, and who are gathered together in one of the Island institutions?

Who of you can personally serve in word and deed your poor, for whom the city is caring in the almshouses?

Who can follow the erring youths and men to their cells in the city's prisons, and give them the counsel and help that they crave?

Which of you can look beyond his borders and bring into the proper perspective the needs that are crying out to be met from men of every nation under heaven, poor and distressed, soul-sick and body-sick, lunatic and idiot?

It is manifestly impossible for you to meet the needs of the normal ones who, in a strange land and too old to learn the tongue of the country, huddle together in national communities and crave the opportunity to worship the God of their fathers in a church they can call their own.

You have entrusted the City Mission with this work, and after six years of service for you I can see with greater clearness the paramount importance of this work, so like that of our Lord's own ministry among men.

The following is a condensed statement of what has been done during the last Convention year, so far as results can be translated into figures:

May 1, 1906, to May 1, 1907.

With the increase in our work and in its fruits, the offerings of our friends have fairly well kept pace. The Treasurer's books show the sources of the Society's income to have been as follows, for the year ending October 15, 1907:

Income applicable to General Expenses.....	$58,149 46
Fresh Air Fund.....	7,231 19
Festival Fund	3,478 25
Special Objects	4,530 94
Mission News, Subscriptions, etc.....	698 65

This total, contributed by the people of fifty parishes, is 11 per cent. larger than was reported to you a year ago.

By resolution of the last Convention our Society was requested "to undertake the work among immigrants at the port of New York, and to enlarge its present scope by placing there a staff of clergymen and women able to speak the languages of the immigrants." For years the Church has been represented at the gateway to America, but the services of the clergymen working there have been definitely limited to the members of the Church of England. On May 1st the Society formally undertook the work. The keynote was changed from the ministry to English Churchmen to the ministry to Humanity. We have at present a staff of three persons there, and others are to be added as we are able to provide their support. Among them ten languages are spoken, and Spaniard and Greek, Turk and Arabian, who formerly had none to care for them, are now welcomed and assisted by those who speak to them in the tongues wherein they were born. This is a work which reaches farther than the diocese, and in which the Church throughout the land should have her interest.

In other respects has our field broadened in the last year. The city has completed its new buildings for contagious diseases at the foot of East Sixteenth Street, and we have sent a Chaplain there, so that now in three different sections of the city those isolated because of disease are reached by the ministrations of the Church.

The work among colored people at St. Cyprian's Chapel continues to grow, and the new building that was spoken of last year as contemplated is now in the course of construction. We have not been able, with the other calls upon our funds, to erect more than a portion of the five-story parish house we have planned, but we will have adequate quarters for the work among men and boys, and an auditorium capable of seating a congregation of at least 600 persons. The houses now standing on the other portion of the plot will still be used as the living quarters of the staff, and will house the splendid work which the wife of our clergyman is doing for the uplift of the girls. Perhaps the most gratifying aspect of the colored work is the response the people themselves are making to our efforts to help them. Not only are they coming to us in increasing numbers for ministrations, counsel and help, but they are making regular and substantial contributions to the fund for the building and equipping of the new parish house. This, with the fact that their weekly offerings are twice as large as those of any other of our chapels, gives us great encouragement.

The building of the old Pro-Cathedral, now called the House of Aquila, is being remodeled to meet the needs of its neighborhood. As soon as it is reopened a Christian settlement work for the Children of Israel will be begun there. Day Nursery and Kindergarten, class, club, and manual drill, amusements for the young and the old will all have their place, and will tend to the one great aim, the formation of a Hebrew-Christian congregation, which we hope may retain all of the Israelitish rites and ceremonies as do not conflict with the way of Christ, while they acknowledge Him as their Messiah and their King.

More than five thousand persons have been laid to rest in the city's burial ground, the Potter's Field, and over each one interred there the Burial Office of the Church has been read. No longer is their resting-place unmarked, for there now rises from the knoll, plainly seen by the passing ships, a large granite cross, bearing the inscription, "He calleth His own by name." This symbol of the resurrection is the pledge to those who lie there of their heritage in the Christian's hope.

Our Fresh Air Fund amounted this past year to more than $7,200, the largest in the history of the Society, and 20 per cent. larger than the previous year. Schermerhorn House and Camp Bleecker at Milford, Conn., gave 12,818 days' board to nearly 1,000 boys and girls, who otherwise would have had to endure the heat and humidity of the city's tenements. It is our privilege to again acknowledge the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hull Browning, who have, for the fourteenth successive year, placed the Rethmore Home at Tenafly, N. J., at our disposal for the little children, and met the entire expense of its maintenance, as well as added many improvements and comforts.

The Advent Offering, now about to enter upon its fourth year, has become a definite part of the Sunday-school scheme. Each year more and more schools have been registered, whose pupils are glad to make an offering on the Birthday of the Christ Child to further their work among those of His unfortunate children who have so little.

The last General Convention has sounded the bugle call to a new activity in the Church's mission. As never before, she acknowledges her commission to bear witness not only in Jerusalem, but unto the uttermost parts of the earth. Greater responsibilities have been assumed, and the call for support under the apportionment will be greater than ever before. These are the signs of progress. Yet I am afraid that in our enthusiasm for the work that lies afield we are apt to overlook the claims of that at our door. The wonderful opportunities in China and Japan attract us, and we believe we can almost see the day when "the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea." This is as it should be. By no word would I hinder it, it is our inheritance to further it in every way, but I must beg you to also look at home. New York is unique among the cities of the world. Jerusalem and all Judæa it is in very truth. The uttermost parts of the earth are no longer distant across the seas, the uttermost parts of the earth are here. Their people are pouring in in countless hordes every year. Long ago New York ceased to be an American city—now three millions of her people are foreign-born. Long ago New York ceased to be an American city—to-day she is ceasing to be a Christian city. The future depends upon the Church. It is the nearest, and to us the most vitally important, mission field. Is the support of the Church's work here to be dependent any longer upon the haphazard gifts of her children, or will a great and systematic effort be made to teach Christ's Gospel to people here who know it not, or believe it not, so that the metropolis of this Christian land may be again a city of the Christ? Upon you depends the answer.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT B. KIMBER,
Superintendent.

NEW YORK, November 13, 1907.

The Rev. Dr. Manning offered the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention, in accepting the Annual Report of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, which has just been presented, desires to express in this way its hearty appreciation of the good and valuable work that is being carried on by the Society's Representatives, and cordially recommends to the clergy and laity of the city and diocese to give that work their unremitting and generous support, by making in each congregation in the city of New York, in accordance with the Canon, an annual contribution for this purpose; and be it further

Resolved, That this Convention expresses its hearty approval of the Advent offering for City Missions, inaugurated by the Convention of 1904, and urges every Sunday-school to take part in this movement.

The Rev. A. R. Mansfield presented the Report of the Seamen's Church Institute.

SIXTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK.

The Field.—Public attention has never before been so forcibly drawn to the changes for the better which have taken place in the treatment of sailors in the port of New York as during this sixty-second year of the Society's existence, perhaps the most eventful year in its long history of usefulness. The results of our efforts more than ever justify their cost in time, money and labor, and our Society, like our nation, will become a world power. Out of the 3,000,000 sailors toiling on the seven seas, at least 300,000 frequent this port every year. In outgoing ships they visit every port and carry with them the good and evil influences they assimilate here.

The Work.—Details of our local work may be found in the general summary accompanying this report, and will show a satisfactory growth on all the lines adopted and adapted. Our aim is first to give religious privileges, then rational entertainment and attractive environment to all the churchless and homeless seamen while on shore, police and social protection from the evils that beset them, and punishment for those who abuse them.

We furnish a sailors' home, several reading rooms, with ample facilities for home correspondence and for transmission of earnings to dependent relatives, concerts and lectures adapted to the needs of a floating population temporarily on shore.

We realize that in the short average of a sailor's active life (said not to exceed twelve years), and in his short stay on shore, our officers and employees, in their ministrations, must be alert, sympathetic and untiring, and we are glad to report increasing usefulness at the various stations of the Society.

Change in Name.—The proceedings before the Supreme Court of this State for a change in the name of the Society culminated on April 5th of this year, and on that date the cumbersome title of "The Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York" was dropped, and the Society assumed its new name, "Seamen's Church Institute of New York."

New Building.—Citizens of New York are responding generously to our appeal for the proposed twelve-story Home and Institute, which is to supply 500 seamen with separate sleeping rooms, captains and officers with club rooms, a restaurant supplying single meals or board by the day or week, a free shipping bureau, class rooms for nautical instruction, reading, writing, game and baggage rooms, banking and post-office departments, and a large assembly hall for religious purposes, lectures and entertainments. The plot of land, about 90 feet square, at corner of Coenties Slip and South Street, has been bought at a cost of about $200,000, all of which has been subscribed. Four hundred thousand dollars more will be needed for the construction and equipment of this proposed building. The Building Committee has been authorized to commence construction of the proposed building at South Street and Coenties Slip as soon as they have secured subscriptions to the extent of $350,000. We require about $40,000 more before we shall be able to break ground.

This is a problem and a responsibility greater than has ever before been assumed by our Society, or by any like Society in New York. But it is the natural and logical development of our work. This is not an unreasonable sum to ask from the citizens of New York—New York, which owes its splendid prosperity to the fact that it is a seaport. Should not New York, the first port of our country, set an example to the world in safeguarding those who man the decks and furl the sails of its prosperity? We are still far behind other large cities in their care for seamen, and if we are not sustained, we must place the responsibility upon the opulent, commercial, maritime and civic interests of this magnificent port, which leads the world in its generous and humane interest in men who labor and suffer on land. We can not believe that they will knowingly continue to neglect those who toil and ultimately perish on the sea.

And so we appeal to all citizens of New York, and especially to the Church people of this city and diocese, and to all who are interested in our work, to respond according to their means and send their subscriptions to the chairman of the Building Committee. Surely this will be regarded as a privilege and an opportunity by the people of New York. Their subscriptions will be "bread cast upon the waters" of their own harbor.

The development of this project has been placed in the hands of a "Building Committee," composed of the following members of the Board:

Edmund L. Baylies, Chairman, 54 Wall Street, New York City; A. T. Mahan, Admiral, U. S. N. (Retired); O. Egerton Schmidt, J. Augustus Johnson, Henry Lewis Morris.

Our Free Shipping Bureau.—The vastly increasing number of seamen shipped (see General Summary) at our stations, without payment of illegal shipping fees and bonuses, furnishes cumulative proof to men and shipowners alike that their interests are greatly promoted by our Society. Men have enjoyed the hospitality of our religious services, reading room, lunch counter, baggage rooms and shipping facilities. The protection thus extended has reduced to a minimum the evils of the crimps and criminal boardinghouse keepers, many of whom have abandoned their vile traffic in human flesh and have gone into other business. The opportunity to find men among an estimated 165,000 who visit our reading rooms, and most of whom desire shipment, is gladly availed of by a rapidly increasing number of captains and companies seeking for crews.

This is indicated by the following list of men shipped through our bureau without cost to the seamen from April 28, 1905, to December 1, 1906:

Mission Boat and Harbor Service.—The “Sentinel” has added greatly to the efficiency of our mission and practical work in the churchless harbor, and has become indispensable in the recent enlargement of our scope. The continued co-operation of the ladies who constitute the Seamen’s Benefit Society in keeping this vessel in active work is gratefully acknowledged. Of the sum required to meet the annual cost of maintenance we have received $3,000 from the said Society.

Money Deposited and Transmitted.—The sum of $120,815.62 has been received on deposit from seamen during the year for safekeeping or for transmission to their homes and relatives.

Our banking facilities at Battery Station are greatly increased for the coming year, owing to the fact that we have acquired the adjoining premises and the space in the basement of No. 1 State Street, which was formerly occupied by a saloon. We look forward to even greater results in what is perhaps the branch of our work most appreciated by sailors.

Action of Diocesan Convention.—In addition to the appointment by the General Convention of a joint commission composed of Bishops, Presbyters and laymen, to promote concerted action in behalf of seamen throughout the nation, we are glad to note that the Diocesan Convention has this year continued its committee to devise means for the erection of proposed building. In view of the extraordinary interest shown in this work by the convention, and agreeably to the spirit of Canon XVII., Sec. 3, which states that the Seamen’s Church Institute is to be reckoned among the Church Charities, for which provision is to be made, we make special appeal to every parish in this our diocese for its hearty and generous support.

Action of the General Convention.—The General Convention, realizing the urgent and immediate need of a special and central organization, acting on behalf of the Church, for the purpose of coördinating existing institutions for seamen and for extending the work to those ports which are at present unoccupied by the Church, and further realizing her duty towards the seamen who visit our shores, irrespective of creed or nationality, created a Board to be known as “The Seamen’s Church Institute of America,” and to consist of five Bishops, five Presbyters and five laymen, such Board to be organized under the Board of Missions for the purpose of managing the work of the Church among seamen in the United States of America and its possessions. Of the fifteen members appointed four were selected from this convention, the Bishop, as president, one Presbyter and two laymen. This action is timely and significant.

A retired commander of the British Navy, and the late General Secretary of the Church of England’s great missions to seamen society, in writing to the Bishop of St. Albans, said: “In your lordship’s approaching visit to the United States, you may have to speak of spiritual provision for sailors of many creeds, in ships of many nations frequenting American ports. May I venture to say that United States ports are the vilest that our seamen enter, and yet the United States laws for their protection are as good as our own. The religious care, if any, of seagoing men is chiefly the work of the Christian Endeavorers and non-sectarians, which lack the backbone of church organization and of a book of prayer."

Would that the Church in this diocese could have a vision and see erected the proposed great Institute in New York, properly equipped, and with its comprehensive activities meeting, to a very large extent, all the varied and crying needs of the seafarer in New York, and, having seen the vision, would awake to a realizing sense of its duty to the men of the sea, and at once grasp the present and rapidly passing opportunities, probably never to return again, and make possible the carrying into effect the magnificent plans of this Society.

Legislation.—There are several bills still pending in Congress for the improvement of our mercantile marine, which we trust will be acted upon at the present session. Our endeavor to prevent and punish "shanghaiing" has been successful, and the anti-shanghai bill became a law in June of this year. Several convictions have already been obtained under the provisions of this law, and we have reasonable hope that it will encourage the sailor to protect himself and arouse the public prosecutor to more strenuous effort; and while it is not to be expected that this legislation will abolish shanghaiing any more than capital punishment has done away with murder, it is bound to have a great deterrent effect, and, with energetic co-operation on the part of the prosecuting attorney, a great step in advance will have been made for the protection of the American sailor. Our committee on legislation is now endeavoring to obtain appropriate relief and protection for men employed on scows and barges, who are greatly exposed to needless disaster from lack of life-saving appliances.

Change in Station.—Continuing to look toward the ultimate centralization of our many and varied activities in the Institute, which it is earnestly hoped may soon be erected, this Society has this month disposed of its sailors' home and boarding-house at 52 Market Street, where forty men only could be accommodated, and has purchased for temporary use and to meet an immediate and pressing demand, four adjoining buildings in Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, on the water front, in the midst of the new sailor town. These buildings are being completely renovated and equipped with all modern appliances for comfort. Here 125 men, 85 more than ever accommodated before, may lodge under the best conditions. This new hotel will be opened on December 1, and will contain a moderate-priced restaurant, and will have reading and writing rooms and everything needful to make it homelike and attractive.

Thus we are constantly and aggressively pressing on, putting forth every effort, not only to rescue the perishing, but to build up sailors in the Christian faith, equipping them manfully to fight under His banner, and sending them forth to sea as Christ's witnesses to their shipmates on every ocean unto the uttermost parts of the earth.

In Memoriam.—Death again diminished our number, and during the past year we have lost from our honorary members David H. Decker, who served upon the Board of Managers from 1887 to 1905. In the recent sudden death of Wilhelmus Mynderse the Society has suffered a severe loss.

He was deeply interested in our work, and his advice and wise counsels will be greatly missed.

Legacies.—There have been several legacies paid to the Society during the past year, but they have been under wills mentioned in previous reports, except a legacy of $1,000, paid in September of this year, by the estate of Herbert Valentine.

Finances.—This year we have expended in the most economical manner $32,780.57 in carrying on the work of the Society. Our receipts for current expenses were only $19,518.25, thus compelling us to draw largely from our trust funds the additional amount of this year's deficit, viz: $13,262.32. It is with great regret, and even dismay, that we find ourselves year after year making inroads upon the fund which is our main source of support, yet curtailment of effort in the face of the urgent demands of our increasing work seems inadvisable and impossible unless we shirk our great and growing opportunity for usefulness.

The Rev. Dr. J. Lewis Parks offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of New York desires to express its deep sympathy with the Right Reverend the Bishop of Albany in the grief that has come to him by the death of Mrs. Doane, and the Convention invokes for the Bishop of Albany the consolation of the Giver of all Grace.

The Rev. Dr. Batten offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That Article VII. of the Constitution, as approved last year (Journal, p. 144), be referred to the Committee on Canons, said committee to report to-morrow.

The Secretary announced that he had appointed as Assistant Secretaries the Rev. Romaine S. Mansfield, the Rev. Robert Van Kleeck Harris and the Rev. H. R. Hulse.

The Secretary offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the election of the Standing Committee, of Deputies to the Federate Council, of Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention be made the special Order of the Day on Thursday, immediately after the Convention be called to order, and that the Inspectors of Election be directed to take their places in the Model Room and there receive the ballots for such officers, in order that the other business of Convention may go on at the same time without disorder and interruption.

The Secretary presented the Report of the Parochial Fund.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that four meetings of the Board have been held during the conventional year 1906-1907.

Appropriations have been made, as usual, from the income of the funds at the disposal of the Board to some of the most deserving, but least salaried, clergymen of the diocese. Without this assistance from the Board it would be impossible to give a living wage to some of the active clergy of the Church. And without this assistance some of the churches could not be provided with even Sunday services. The relations of the Board to its beneficiaries are confidential in all instances, but the need of increased income for the prosecution of its work is greatly felt by the Board of Trustees. Still, it is with great pleasure that the Board is able to place on record the fact that every application for assistance during the past conventional year has been willingly granted.

The Annual Report of the Treasurer is hereunto annexed. The terms of office of Mr. George R. Schieffelin and Mr. William Jay expired on October 1, 1907. The Trustees suggest that the Secretary of the Convention be instructed to cast a ballot for two gentlemen to succeed them.

The Trustees announce to the Convention the resignation of Mr. George R. Schieffelin, the President of the Board, and for many years a Trustee of the Parochial Fund. He now asks to be relieved from further service, on account of the condition of his health. The Board of Trustees desire to place on record its deep appreciation of Mr. Schieffelin's many years of loyal and devoted service, and its deep regret that he should find it necessary to deprive its members of his assistance and counsel in their work.

WALTER THOMPSON, Secretary.

On motion, Mr. Blair S. Williams and Mr. William Jay were duly elected as Trustees of the Parochial Fund, to serve until October, 1910, and Mr. George A. Crocker in place of Mr. Wm. Alexander Smith.

The Rev. Dr. Peters offered the following resolution, and it was adopted:

Resolved, That, in accordance with the recommendations of the joint Commission on the Relations of Capital and Labor to the General Convention of this Church, that Diocesan Committees of Social Service and the like should be formed, and, in accordance with the recommendation of our beloved Diocesan in his Convention address, that such action be taken by this Convention, a Social Service Committee be appointed, consisting of the Bishop as its ex-officio head, one clergyman and one layman from each Archdeaconry of the Diocese, with six clergymen and six laymen-at-large, the duty of which committee shall be to carry into effect any measure or measures recommended by the Diocesan Convention for the betterment of social conditions in the Diocese.

The Bishop appointed as such committee:

The Bishop of New York.

The Five Archdeacons.

The Secretaries of the Five Archdeaconries.

The Rev. A. G. Cummins.

Mr. Lewis G. Chanler.

The Rev. H. P. Nichols, D.D.

Mr. J. Howard Wainwright.

The Rev. W. T. Manning, D.D.

Mr. Roger H. Bacon.

The Rev. J. E. Freeman.

Mr. Francis H. Howland.

The Rev. G. W. Douglas, D.D.

Mr. Edward T. Cockey.

The Rev. J. P. Peters, D.D.

Mr. J. Montgomery Hare.

The Rev. Dr. Hopson presented the Report of St. Stephen's College.

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The Trustees of the Diocesan College beg to report that the college opened, September 11, with 51 students, a number slightly in excess of any that we have had for the past six years. There were eleven other applicants who were anxious to study for the ministry, and who were highly commended by their rectors for their character and ability; but we were obliged to decline them, either because they lacked the literary qualifications which we require, or because they needed financial assistance, and we had no scholarships for them.

Mr. James H. Willock, the Acting Professor of Mathematics and Science, resigned his chair at the close of the last academic year. We were fortunate enough to secure, in his place, our former Professor, Robert G. Robb. Professor Robb is a stimulating and inspiring teacher, who arouses enthusiasm in his classes, and excites interest even in the study of Mathematics. His return, after two years of added experience, has substantially increased the strength of our Faculty.

We regret to report that the Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., after discharging the duties of the Warden for three and a half years with great fidelity, felt constrained, last spring, to hand in his resignation, owing to his continued ill health. The Trustees sought to induce him to reconsider his determination, but as he could not be persuaded to withdraw his resignation they accepted it, with regret, to take effect the 1st of September. Dr. Harris restored, in a modified form, the Preparatory Department, which is a valuable feeder to the college, and enables us to receive young men who have graduated from the High Schools, but have studied neither Greek nor Latin. The Doctor and his family have promoted the social intercourse, and added much to the enjoyment of the Faculty and students by their bountiful hospitality. They leave many warm friends behind them.

To fill the vacancy caused by Dr. Harris's resignation, the Trustees, at their meeting last May, elected as Warden the Rev. Edgar Cope, Rector of St. Simeon's Church, Philadelphia. Mr. Cope has not yet announced his decision.

The harvest is great, but the laborers are few. Candidates for the ministry are decreasing in number. The call of the world to pleasure and riches is more alluring to young men than the call of the Master to work in His vineyard. Western Bishops are constrained to take half-educated men to fill their vacant parishes and missions, to satisfy imperative demands. St. Stephen's College, with insufficient means, has done and is doing a greatly needed work. It has sent into the ministry some 300 well-educated men. Some of them have gone to China and Africa and Persia and Alaska, to laborious fields in Western States and Territories, to the slums of our large cities, and to the Seamen's Mission. The undergraduates are animated by a missionary spirit. Over half of them belong to the College Missionary Society, and others attend its meetings and services. Two classes meet weekly to study foreign and domestic missions. We send delegates to the Students' Church Missionary Association. We invite missionaries to come to the college and address us. Our young men are preparing their bodies, minds and souls to obey the call of their divine Lord to go into all the world and preach the gospel—to be ready, when the call comes, to say, "Here am I; send me." Will you not give us such financial support as will enable us to extend our work, and increase our usefulness to the Church?

GEO. B. HOPSON,
Acting Warden.

On motion, a recess for one hour was taken.

The Convention reassembled at two o'clock.

On motion of Dr. Batten, the Address of the Bishop Coadjutor was made the order of the day at three o'clock.

Mr. William Jay presented the Report of the Episcopal Fund, and the resolution incorporated therein was adopted.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York report that the capital of the General Fund in their hands is two hundred and fourteen thousand four hundred and eighty-four dollars and eleven cents ($214,484.11).

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund again respectfully call the attention of the Convention to the deficiency existing in the Residence Fund, and ask such action by the Convention as will enable the Trustees to pay this debt.

The receipts from investments during the year will be insufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the fund for the Bishop's salary, and no addition having been made to the capital of the fund during the year, an assessment will be necessary for the deficiency of income for the year ending November, 1908, and the Trustees, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund be, and they are hereby authorized to assess the parishes of the diocese at the rate of three per cent. upon the salaries paid to the clergy, for the purposes of raising moneys needed for the Episcopal Fund, in lieu of the collections provided for by canon."

The statement of the investment and income of the funds in the hands of the Trustees is as follows:

The Rev. Dr. Batten presented the Report of the Committee on Work among Foreign Races.

The Committee on Missionary Work among People of Foreign Races presents the following report:

The Committee has held several meetings during the year, and has given careful consideration to the subject placed before it. On account of the vast number of foreigners now residing in this city, the subject is one of the most important which should engage the attention of the Church in this diocese.

The presence of foreigners is not a new feature in our municipal life. It may be well to remember that the English came here as a foreign and, in a measure, an unwelcome people. Other strange races followed the English, the tide of immigration continuing throughout the past two centuries. But within the last few years the increase in the number of foreign settlers has become so great, and the prospect of any decrease in the rate of immigration is so slight, that the time may soon come when the original English and Dutch stock will be a scarcely appreciable element in the population.

The great majority of these people, and the ones with whom we are concerned, cross the Atlantic in the steerage. They are therefore too poor to build churches and synagogues of their own, especially in a city where the purchase of a suitable lot means the expenditure of many thousands of dollars. As they reach New York with but little money in hand, they find all their energy absorbed in the task of earning a livelihood. The result is a natural lack of enthusiasm for an organized religious life. And, even if there were such enthusiasm, it is difficult to see how it could find expression; for there are not accommodations in church and synagogue for this vast multitude. In just those parts of New York where the congestion of population is greatest, houses of worship are fewest in number, the most poorly equipped for large service, and have the smallest congregations.

Even these facts do not tell the whole distressing story; for, from the very districts where there is the densest population, Christian Churches have withdrawn. Moreover, others will be obliged to close their doors unless some method can be devised to meet this critical condition. The Church has so far fled before the incoming tide of people of foreign races. It is surely time to rise and meet the wave.

The problem is one which cannot be easily solved; it would be hard to exaggerate the grave difficulty. It is doubtful if any foreign field presents a more perplexing task. But God hearkened not to Elijah when he fled from his station because his office had become too onerous, and He will scarcely approve if we run away from a field "white to the harvest." The Church should not retreat, and so not hear the searching question, "What doest thou here?"

To try to hold its present lines, if not to regain what has already been lost, the Committee offers three suggestions:

1. The first and most important proposal grows out of action taken at the recent General Convention. It is all but certain that in 1910 it will become lawful for any diocese in this Church to elect one or more Suffragan Bishops. Three years hence the Convention of the Diocese of New York should elect a Suffragan Bishop whose sole jurisdiction should be missionary work among people of foreign races.

2. But it would be a fatal mistake to wait in idleness through three precious years. Moreover, the way should be prepared so that he who may be the first Suffragan in the American Church will find some foundation upon which to build. The first step is to hold out a loving and hospitable hand to the strangers who settle in our midst. A good start has already been made by services in other tongues than English, especially among the Italians. Further, foreign Christian peoples are now worshipping God after their own forms in Church buildings. This latter course should be extended to another people, who have been called the most religious people on the face of the earth, and whose God is our God, too. In accepting Jesus Christ, we do not separate ourselves from the God of Abraham. Why should we separate ourselves so far from the sons of Abraham? Our blessed Lord observed the rites of Judaism, celebrating the Passover on the night in which He was betrayed. Can we forget, then, the vast common ground between the Jew and the Christian? Your Committee believe it an important step that the scarcity of synagogues should be met by opening the doors of our parish houses, wherever there is a large Jewish population, to this ancient people of God, that they may there learn the Ten Commandments and such other duties as they were taught by Him whom our Lord called Father.

3. Important as such a step would be, it could not wholly satisfy either us or them. Glad as we should be to have them worship Jehovah in houses we have built to His honor and glory, we want to give them our best, and that is their own Messiah. The Jew believes that God has withheld His promise for more than twenty centuries; we believe that God faithfully fulfilled the promise made first to the Jew and then to the Gentile. We want lovingly to persuade them that the Messiah has come, and this Committee proposes to engage two workers, as soon as men can be found adequate to the great mission, to co-operate with such parishes as are suitably situated, to tell to Israel that their Messiah has come, and that He will teach them of their Father better even than all the prophets "from Samuel and them that followed after."

To the end that these purposes be carried out, the Committee offers the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Committee be continued, under the conditions adopted at the last Convention.

DAVID H. GREER.
L. W. BATTEN.
E. M. STIRES.
H. M. BIRCKHEAD.
R. FULTON CUTTING.
GEORGE ZABRISKIE.
HENRY LEWIS MORRIS.

On motion, the resolution appended to the report was adopted.

Rev. Mr. Applegate presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON APPORTIONMENT.

The Committee on the Diocesan Apportionment reports that it has performed the duties required of it by the last Convention, and through a sub-committee on adjustment has acted on the few objections presented;

That the contributions on the apportionment of $137,600 were $115,861, from 155 parishes or missions, no response being made by 77.

That a comparison of the results of this year with those of the previous one shows that the diocese has increased its contributions by $8,356; that 67 parishes or missions met their apportionment in full against 35 the previous year, and that while 15 parishes or missions which contributed the previous year failed to do so this year, yet 23 which made no response the previous year did contribute this year, a net gain of 8 in the number of parishes participating;

That the new apportionment to the diocese is $137,600, the same as last year.

Your Committee calls the attention of the Convention to the delay caused by authorizing at the Convention in November the apportionment for the year beginning the previous September, and has so modified the customary resolution for its appointment as to obviate such delay and provide for the Committee's action from year to year at the will of the Convention.

The Committee presents the following resolution, and moves its adoption:

Resolved, That the Chair be requested to appoint a committee consisting of the Bishop Coadjutor, the five Archdeacons, five parochial clergymen and five laymen, whose duties shall be:

1. To apportion among the congregations of the diocese the entire amount each year apportioned to this diocese by the Board of Missions of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society.

2. To communicate to each congregation through its minister the amount of its apportionment.

3. To take such other steps to enlist the full coöperation of all the congregations of the diocese on behalf of the Domestic and Foreign Missions of the Church, as, in the judgment of the committee, may be desirable; and

4. To keep a record of its proceedings and to report to the Convention.

OCTAVIUS APPLGATE,
Secretary.

November 12, 1907.

On motion, the resolution appended to the report was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The Bishop of the Diocese, in his Address to this Convention, has suggested the appointment of a Committee of Ways and Means in the interest of Diocesan Missions;

Resolved, That a Committee, consisting of two representatives—one clergyman and one layman—from each Archdeaconry, with the Bishop as Chairman, ex-officio, be appointed to consider and report on this subject, with a recommendation as to the best means of interesting the clergy and laity of the diocese in the matter of raising the funds necessary for carrying on the mission work of the diocese, both within and outside of the city of New York.

The Bishop appointed as such committee the five Archdeacons: Mr. A. Spencer Murray, Mr. Edward D. Harris, Mr. R. M. Pott, Mr. Harry C. Barker and Mr. E. B. Arnold.

On the retirement of the Bishop of the Diocese, the Bishop Coadjutor took the chair.

Mr. Francis Lynde Stetson offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Committee on Apportionment for General Missions be authorized to proceed according to its own best judgment as to the basis of parochial apportionment, and without reference to resolution adopted by the Convention of 1906, and printed on page 140 of the journal.

Mr. Everett P. Wheeler moved the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The work of the Educational Secretary of the Board of Missions is so extensive that diocesan organization would be a material relief, and in the dioceses of Pennsylvania and Newark the services of a diocesan educational secretary have been found useful.

Resolved, That the Bishop of the Diocese, in coöperation with the Educational Department of the Board of Missions, be requested to appoint an educational secretary for this diocese, whose duty it shall be to organize and give information about mission study classes and missionary meetings in the diocese, and to pursue such other course of action as shall be directed and approved by the Bishop, the Educational Secretary of the Board of Missions, and the Rectors of Churches within whose parishes the work may be done. The Secretary shall be appointed annually. A Committee to coöperate with such Secretary may also, in the discretion of the Bishop, be appointed by him.

Mr. J. Brooks Leavitt offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee of Five be appointed by the Chair to prepare, and obtain publication thereof by a publisher upon suitable terms, a book of proper lessons, according to the Revised Version, and to recommend its use by the congregations in following the lessons as read by the minister according to the King James' version.

On motion of Dr. J. Lewis Parks this was laid on the table.

Rev. Dr. Grosvenor offered the following resolution, which was made the order of the day immediately after the Bishop Coadjutor's Address:

WHEREAS, It has been announced that the motto: "In God we trust," has been omitted from certain coins of the United States; therefore,

Resolved, That this Convention protests against such change, and declares that the highest interest of our country demands the preservation of all those customs that have stood for the recognition of God in the life of the people.

The Bishop Coadjutor then read his Annual Address.

The resolution of the Rev. Dr. Grosvenor being the order of the day, Mr. Everett P. Wheeler offered the following amendment: and requests the Secretary of the Treasury to restore the motto that has been omitted, which was accepted by the Rev. Dr. Grosvenor.

A motion to indefinitely postpone action was not adopted.

A motion to lay the resolution on the table was not adopted.

The motion as amended was then adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Manning offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed by the Bishop Coadjutor, consisting of himself as chairman, together with five clergymen and five laymen, to take steps for the appropriate recognition and celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the consecration of the Bishop of the Diocese.*

On motion of Mr. E. M. Camp the following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, The new Missionary Council of the Second Department, created by canon of the General Convention, is authorized to promote the holding of missionary meetings; and

WHEREAS, The men of the Church in at least four cities of the State of New York express their willingness to plan and hold annual missionary meetings in their respective cities;

Resolved, That the four clerical and four lay representatives of the Diocese of New York in the Missionary Council, when elected by this Convention, be instructed to urge upon the Council of this Second Missionary Department, when it shall be constituted, the issuance of a formal appeal to the men of the principal cities in the department to plan and hold annual missionary meetings in their respective cities, the Department Missionary Council coöperating, to give information and to arouse larger interest in the missionary work of the Church at home and abroad.

On motion, Convention adjourned to Thursday at 10 o'clock.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, November 14, 1907.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said by the Rt. Rev. H. C. Potter, D.D., Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese, the Rev. Thos. R. Harris,

* At the request of the Bishop of the Diocese this committee was not appointed, as the Bishop wished action deferred until the completion of the Crossing of the Cathedral.

D.D., Secretary of the Diocese, and the Rev. Ernest Voorhis, Ph.D., Canon of the Cathedral.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the chair, and the minutes of the preceding day were read and approved.

The Bishop of the Diocese introduced to the Convention the Bishop of Chicago, the Rt. Rev. Charles P. Anderson, D.D.

The Rev. Dr. Batten offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That that part of the Bishop's address treating of the inadequate salaries of some of the clergy be referred to a special committee of three, said committee to report to this Convention.

The Bishop appointed as such committee:

The Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D.,
The Rev. H. McC. Birkhead,
Mr. Charles F. Hoffman.

On motion, the calling of the roll of delegates was omitted, and the delegates present to-day but not present yesterday were requested to send their names to the Secretary.

The Secretary of the Convention presented the following nominations in accordance with the provisions of Canon IX.:

NOMINATIONS FOR STANDING COMMITTEE.

Rev. A. T. Ashton, D.D.	Mr. Geo. M. Miller.
Rev. G. M. Christian, D.D.	Mr. Herman C. von Post.
Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D.	Mr. Charles H. Russell.
Rev. W. M. Grosvenor, D.D.	Mr. George Zabriskie.
Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D.

NOMINATIONS FOR FEDERATE COUNCIL.

Rev. C. F. Canedy, D.D.	Mr. Harry C. Barker.
Rev. L. T. Cole, D.D.	Mr. Elihu Chauncey.
Rev. W. M. Grosvenor, D.D.	Mr. W. B. Cutting.
Rev. R. V. K. Harris.	Mr. Irving Grinnell.
Rev. H. Mottet, D.D.	Mr. Douglas Merritt.
Rev. J. P. Peters, D.D.	Mr. Geo. M. Miller.
Rev. W. J. Seabury, D.D.	Mr. Henry Lewis Morris.
Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D.	Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie.

The Convention, on motion of the Archdeacon of Orange, proceeded to sit as the Board of Missions.

The reports of the Archdeacons were presented and read.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF ORANGE.

In behalf of the Archdeacons of Orange, the Archdeacon reports as follows:

The work has been steadily carried on and maintained by our faithful missionaries with a high degree of efficiency. Out of many incidents that might be mentioned, a few facts, for the sake of brevity, will be noticed. At High Falls the entire obligation resting on the rectory has been discharged.

At Callicoon various improvements in the church building have been effected, and a new heating plant placed. Several hundred dollars have been added to the rectory fund. At Greenwood Lake considerable progress has been made in the stone work. While, for the reasons mentioned in my last report, the building rented for chapel purposes at New Paltz had to be given over to the State Normal School for class room use, yet the Holy Communion has been administered at stated intervals, and successful steps have been taken in securing an eligible lot for church purposes. On account of New Paltz being an educational centre, it is of great importance that the Church should be represented there. From 300 to 500 pupils are, in this institution, being prepared to act as teachers in New York State. Some of these are members of the Church; others are deeply interested; many may be attracted to investigate her claims, and learn of her devotional ways, and receive her sound doctrinal teaching. The sober and well-proportioned system of doctrine in which the Church trains up her members and those who attend her services during the Christian year is preëminently needed by the young men and women who are going forth to form the minds and influence the hearts of the children of this great State. Hence, New Paltz, with its Normal School, becomes a strategic point, to be held and developed. There are also about fifteen resident members of the Episcopal Church in the village, and this number may be considerably increased when regular Sunday ministrations shall be furnished.

A subscription paper will soon be prepared, with the approval of the Bishop, to secure funds for the erection of a modest but appropriate church edifice. As much as possible will be collected locally; but we must look to our brethren, the rectors and laymen outside of the limits of the Archdeaconry of Orange, to lend us a generous helping hand.

The Archdeaconry expresses its gratitude for the sum received from Missionary Committee, and asks for the same amount for the ensuing . Through the successful working of its apportionment system, it entirely met its own obligations, and all stipends have been paid in full. A list of missionaries and stations is herewith appended.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF DUTCHESS.

n presenting to the Convention of the Diocese, as required by canon, statement of the present condition of the work in the Archdeaconry of chess, reference must first be made to the change in the personnel of staff.

The Rev. Robert Fulton Crary, D.D., Rector of the Church of the Holy Comforter, Poughkeepsie, and member of the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry from its organization, resigned his cure on October 1, 1907.

A record of forty years' service in one parish as Rector is of very rare occurrence in these days of frequent changes in the pastoral relation. It demands more than a passing notice, for it witnesses to the benefits and great advantages to be derived from long pastorates. Dr. Crary was pre-eminently the pastor. Sympathy was one of his marked characteristics. Definite in his own faith, clear and forcible in his teaching, devoted to his people's needs, he has won in Dutchess County an enviable reputation, and the prayers and affection of his brethren follow him in his retirement.

The Rev. Alexander Hamilton, after four years' service in the Harlem Valley, resigned his cure in the spring. He has been sorely afflicted in the death of his wife and adult daughter. In May he retired from the active discharge of his ministry. He had succeeded in erecting a church at Dover Plains, where he resided. He was succeeded temporarily by the Rev. Mortimer Stacy Ashton, June 1st. This church still has a mortgage debt of $450 resting upon it. It is hoped soon to wipe out this incumbrance. The services have been well attended; the Sunday-school is increasing in numbers, and all current expenses have been met, as has also the pledge of $100 per year to the Archdeaconry. The missionary reports 12 baptisms and 3 marriages.

St. Thomas' Church, Amenia Union, no longer receives aid from the Archdeaconry funds. Services have been regularly maintained from Easter to November 1st. The church has been thoroughly renovated without and within through the assistance of the Rev. Dr. Townsend. The income of the invested fund is paid to the parish treasurer, and this, with voluntary contributions and church offerings, meets the financial obligations of the church.

The Rev. Geo. A. Green, Rector of St. Andrew's Church, Fishkill Landing, has begun services in St. Mark's, Chelsea. He is assisted in his work by the Chapter of St. Andrew's Brotherhood belonging to his parish. He reports that Chelsea has a population of some 300, with practically no industrial resources. A number of families have substantial summer houses, which are occupied from April to November. Many years ago this church, during the rectorship of the Rev. F. W. Shelton, Ph.D., was in a flourishing condition, the result, in a great degree, of the interest taken by one family—now removed. The place, with its very adequate little church, seems to possess considerable possibilities, and it is proposed to hold services from April to November. The sum of $150 has been raised for necessary repairs. A revival of church interest is confidently expected in this field.

The conditions in all the other mission stations remain very much as they were last year. The regular routine work has been carried on without interruption, and the reports of the missionaries indicate some additions by baptism, and a healthful and hopeful condition of the work.

At Stone House the work has gone on satisfactorily. This is of the nature of Settlement Work. Besides the church services, the daily school is maintained, and considerable work has been done in the mission, which is characterized by physicians as first aid to the injured.

As was reported last year, the Apportionment plan, which has resulted in largely increased interest and offerings for the general missionary work of the Church in this county, has been in use in the Archdeaconry of Dutchess since its organization. How successfully it has worked is evidenced from the Treasurer's Report, which is here appended.

The outlook is full of encouragement.

Respectfully submitted,

A. T. ASHTON,
Archdeacon.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF WESTCHESTER.

The Archdeaconry of Westchester has been sadly stricken since the last Convention by the deaths of the Rev. William H. Benjamin, D.D., for many years Rector of St. Barnabas' Church, Irvington; the Rev. William W. Kirkby, D.D., late Rector of Christ Church, Rye; Rev. John Drisler, for many years missionary in Sawmill Valley, and Mr. George Simonson, a vestryman of the Church of the Redeemer, Pelham. Each, in his ministry, life and service, was faithful and loyal to his Lord, devoted and constant in His Church.

The record of the year has been very like that of other years, with but one change in the clerical working force, in the retirement of Rev. Thomas Stephens from the missions in Rockland County. Feeble health has induced him, with great reluctance and with universal regret in the Archdeaconry, to take this step. He still asks for, and with all his heart and remaining strength will prosecute, any work we may give him to do.

We note very gratefully the signs of improvements made in several of our missions on their property. We would record the case of the Church of the Holy Communion, Lake Mahopac, relinquishing a quarter of its annual stipend, and freeing it for other needs of the Archdeaconry.

We would report a very hopeful condition of finance, with apportionments accepted and paid, and a reserve fund at present intact. And while grateful for such evidence of the good will of our clergy and their churches, and grateful as well for the freedom from anxiety on this side of our work, we are not content or satisfied on another side. We referred last year to the phenomenal growth in our counties, especially Westchester, having urgent need for men and money to meet the spiritual work that such growth entails. We hesitate to ask the Board of Managers and Missionary Committee for larger appropriation, we cannot tax our own parishes with increasing demands, but we suggest another way in which new chapels and missions may be built and served. We recall some notable cases where the plan has been adopted. Let the strong succour and support the weak. Let the larger prosperous churches take care of the needs at their own doors. It will make such parishes stronger, and relieve the Diocesan Committees. Christ Church, Rye, has done this for years. It has been done so often by the churches in Yonkers that it has become a fixed habit there. And just now, St. Mary's, Scarborough, by action of its Vestry, has assumed the care and the charges of a mission, which the Rector had established. We commend this way, in this report, as we have often done in the Archdeaconry. We would refer you to the reports of the rectors and missionaries for the details of most faithful and efficient service they are rendering to the diocese.

With a grateful sense of appreciation to the clergy and their parishes in the city for their continued interest, sympathy, and aid,

We would respectfully report,

November 13, 1907.

Archdeacon of Westchester.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF NEW YORK.

A review of the past year is a fresh reminder of our recent bereavements.

Our lamented friend, the late Dr. Tiffany, had made a noble record when he resigned five years ago, on the advice of his physician, after a service of eight years as Archdeacon. His administration was one of wise and earnest activities. It was especially efficient in the Bronx, where he found the opportunities for Church extension a constant incentive to his responsive spirit. He was a sower who went forth to sow; and though he and his fellow laborers of the clergy and laity in the Mission field above the Harlem were not without some goodly harvests in those earlier years, it may well be said of us who came after them: other men labored, and ye are entered into their labors.

The Rev. Rufus W. Frost, when ordained to the Diaconate on Trinity Sunday of last year, was over fifty years of age, and preparing to be advanced, in due time, to the Priesthood. He was a good pattern of the man who is in the world but not of the world. While managing large business interests, he was, at the same time, one of our most active and devout Lay Readers. A year ago he became an Assistant Minister of Grace Church, New York, of which he had been for some years a communicant and Bible-class teacher, but from the date of his ordination to the Diaconate until the sudden illness which resulted in his death he continued in charge of Emmanuel Mission, which owed its planting and fruitfulness chiefly to his labor of love. May God raise up many more such sons of the Faith for such loyal service!

Since our last annual report the mission of the Holy Nativity, at Bedford Park, has become an incorporated parish, thus making the fifth of our Missions established in recent years upon an independent and self-supporting basis. It chose as its first rector the Rev. Herbert M. Hopkins, Ph.D., under whose energetic ministry it had prospered as a Mission. It entered upon its parochial existence with one hundred and thirty communicants and with Church property valued at $20,000. The new parish is situated in a growing and attractive neighborhood with an outlook full of promise for the coming years.

Our other missions are all well placed and doing well. Four of them, called St. Stephen's, St. George's, the Atonement and St. Martha's, have suitable Church edifices. St. Martha's new stone chapel was consecrated last winter. It stands in the centre of what, two years ago, was a broad area of open lots, but which now contains many groups of two-story framed dwellings. At St. David's, our flourishing mission to colored people, the congregation still worships in the crypt of the church that is planned but not yet built.

The enlargement of St. Ambrose's Italian Chapel and parish house was completed last winter at a cost of $15,000, provided by three ladies of Grace Church.

The two missions, called the Holy Spirit and Emmanuel, are the only ones that now occupy rented rooms, but as five of our former congregations that now have church buildings of their own assembled at first, and for some years, in similar rented rooms, before they outgrew such temporary quarters, we trust that these two younger congregations will not have to wait much longer for the new chapels to which they are looking forward with confident hope. However, we have not yet received funds for the purchase of sites and for the construction of these much-needed houses of worship.

The only change in our missionary staff during the past year was at Emmanuel Mission, where, about six months ago, the Rev. Chesley Gantt, Assistant Minister of Grace Church, succeeded the Rev. Mr. Frost, deceased, as minister in charge.

Our summer work included country outings, a majority of them being for two weeks, for 454 beneficiaries, mostly women and children, and the usual Sunday-school excursions.

The following is a summary of statistics for the past year:

Baptisms	115
Confirmed	138
Marriages	53
Funerals	78
S. S. Teachers.....	101
S. S. Scholars.....	1,308
Communicants	853

It is a significant fact that our missions in the Bronx have paid all their own expenses apart from the stipends of Missionaries, with the one exception of the mission of the Holy Spirit, and this mission has been aided for a time, only to the extent of a part of its hall rent. The total amount received at Church services from all the congregations during the year just closed was $4,259.39. The Sunday-school offerings were $712.60. It is evident from these figures that the men and women and children who have given this money, mostly spared, as it has been, from small earnings and by the practice of self-denying economies, are not seeking to escape their share of the cost of the work which the Church has organized and carried on for their welfare.

All along the line of the forward movement which that work represents our young people's organizations have an important place. Each mission is a centre of social as well as of religious life. It does something to help young men "to sit self-governed in the fiery prime of youth, obedient at the feet of law," by giving him physical culture as well as moral precept. It attracts young women away from perilous halls of amusement by providing better entertainments with a wholesome environment. And the fathers and mothers are not slow to recognize the practical value of such gracious influences to their children and to the community at large.

Certainly the largest and most promising work of this kind ever inaugurated in this city above the Harlem River is that of the Church House at 171st Street and Fulton Avenue. On the evening of the 28th of last month, St. Simon and St. Jude's day, in the presence of more than twelve hundred persons assembled in the principal hall, this stately and spacious structure was opened by the Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor with appropriate ceremonies, including an excellent musical programme rendered by volunteer choirs from many churches. Situated in the heart of the Bronx, it may well be called the heart of the Church's philanthropic life in that borough. No expense has been spared by the Bishop Coadjutor in making its equipment complete. As he has announced, it is not a church, but it is an auxiliary to the Church. Already, though so recently opened, its various clubs and classes have been almost overwhelmed by young people with applications for membership, and twenty-five families have sought counsel of the minister in charge with a view to becoming members of some neighboring Church. A Presbyterian and three Deacons are now in residence at this model Church House, not only attending to duties under its roof, but helping, at Church services and in other ways, to prosper the work of five neighboring parishes and missions.

We rejoice to express our gratefulness for this great addition to the missionary forces in the Bronx. It is a most noble object lesson of faith and enterprise. Ours, brethren of the clergy and laity, be the same spirit of faith and enterprise for the other pressing opportunities which abound in the same field of service.

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. NELSON,

Archdeacon of New York.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF RICHMOND.

The second Archdeacon of Richmond was nominated and appointed by the Bishop under the provisions of the new diocesan canon, January 3, 1907.

Notwithstanding the fact that over four months had elapsed between the passing away of the lamented Dr. Johnson, first Archdeacon of Richmond, and the election of his successor, the affairs of the Archdeaconry were found to be in excellent shape, due in large measure to the efforts of the former Secretary, Canon Harrower, the Treasurer, Mr. E. B. Arnold, and a most efficient Board of Trustees. Since assuming the duties of his position, the Archdeacon has visited every mission station and assisted parish—some of these several times—has traversed every portion of the Archdeaconry, and work has begun in some portions hitherto uncovered.

At the very outset the question of missionary effort among the Italians presented itself as a subject calling for immediate action.

The Diocesan Board of Missions had at its meeting, November, 1906, appropriated $500 toward the furthering of work among the Italians in the Borough of Richmond. After a thorough investigation of the field it was decided to begin operations at Mariners' Harbor, where temporary quarters were secured on the first floor of an athletic club house, quarters in many particulars unsuited for the work, but the only place available in this rapidly growing community. The Archdeacon of New York proved of great assistance in the beginning of the work, giving unstintingly of his time and counsel. On his recommendation the Rev. Carmelo Di Sano, a native Italian, in Deacon's orders, was engaged to take charge of the new work. Mr. Di Sano has now been holding services or conferences for eight months, conducting a Sunday-school and gathering together a flock for a permanent organization. He has been signally successful in impressing his earnestness and zeal upon the Italians in the northwest portion of Staten Island, and has a large following who, with him, are deeply interested in securing a permanent Church home. This is the crying need of our Archdeacons' work at this present. Mr. Di Sano is to be advanced to the priesthood the first Sunday in December, and will then be equipped to minister in every needed capacity to his people. We must not allow his splendid efforts to go for naught because of the need of a suitable place for worship.

The Rev. Dr. Blanchet, in whose parish this Italian mission is located, and who has assisted materially in the work, found the increasing demands of his field so pressing that in June he was released from direct responsibility for the care of the Church of the Holy Comforter, Eltingville. The work is now directly under the care of the Archdeacon, assisted by a most energetic lay reader, Mr. John Furrer, a student at the General Theological Seminary. Church, rectory, and parish house are all paid for, are lighted by electricity and heated by steam, and are in good condition throughout. A resident clergyman ought to be provided here to care for the needs of this and perhaps one adjoining mission.

Meanwhile All Saints', Mariners' Harbor, has been making satisfactory progress in the most rapidly growing portion of the Archdeaconry. The Rev. Dr. Blanchet's record of 39 baptisms and 43 confirmations, the clearing of the church property from debt, and the purchase in January last of a new site on which to erect a suitable church, parish house and rectory, somewhat commensurate in size and dignity and appointments with the importance of the field, tells the story.

The sum of $2,000 was raised, and a splendid corner, consisting of ten city lots, was secured. The Archdeacon desires to express gratitude to Mr. Eugene M. Camp, president of the Seabury Society, and the Rev. A. Duane Pell, of Manhattan, who at the last made it possible to raise the necessary sum for this purchase. Could the Archdeaconry purchase the plant now occupied by All Saints' for the Italian mission, obviously two important objects would be furthered.

At the mission of St. Simon's, Concord, satisfactory progress has been made during the past year. A bequest from the late Mr. Bache E. Whitlock, amounting to $1,750, made it possible to discharge the last item of indebtedness on the mission's property, and now church, rectory, and parish house are free from debt.

In every way St. Simon's has made progress the past year, and will, no doubt, very soon apply for admission to the Convention as an independent parish. The Rev. Wm. G. Thompson, the missionary in charge, also ministers to the Mariners' Family Asylum, a home for the aged widows of seamen.

Under the Rev. Wood R. Stewart, Trinity, New Dorp, an assisted parish, has forged ahead, the spiritual life having deepened and affairs material having been measurably improved during the year. The work accomplished for the young men and women of the community through the agency of Trinity's new parish house has been especially marked.

It is a pleasure to state that the Old Mill Road Mission, which was founded by the late Louise E. Turner, and which for many years has maintained a successful Sunday-school and Mission for the children in the vicinity of the New Dorp Beach resorts, has formally placed itself under the jurisdiction of the Archdeaconry. The Mission possesses a convenient and well-appointed building, and a sufficient foundation for the maintenance of this excellent work, which has not only cared for a large number of children otherwise unprovided for spiritually, but has each year sent its offerings of clothing or money to outside philanthropies. The Rev. Wood R. Stewart has been placed in immediate charge of this work, in which he will be assisted by the Archdeacon and members of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood of St. Andrew's Church.

Regular Sunday afternoon services are maintained also by the St. Andrew's Brotherhood at the Marine Hospital, Stapleton, and at the Actors' House on the Clove Road, the clergy of the Church making the addresses in rotation.

St. Stephen's Church, Tottenville, another assisted parish, is making progress under the rectorship of the Rev. Guy A. Jamieson. A portion of the small current debt has been paid the past year, and a new rectory, costing $6,500, is nearing completion.

Cottage services were begun by the Archdeacon last spring in Linoleumville, with much encouragement. A class is ready for confirmation, and it is hoped in the near future to organize regularly here and at New Springville. The same hope is felt as to Pleasant Plains and Prince's Bay, also as to Westerleigh, where there is a considerable number of church families. This latter field has been placed in charge of Canon Harrower, who purposes beginning services there at an early date.

The Archdeacon desires to register the thanks of the Archdeaconry to Messrs. Arthur A. Michell, H. G. D. De Meli, H. V. Carrere, J. Morris, Bert Lienhardt and Eugene Alexander, for generous assistance to the work of the Archdeaconry as lay readers.

Finally, the great need of the Archdeaconry of Richmond is a larger fund with which to prosecute aggressive, or, at least, more active missionary operations in this distinctly missionary field. The Diocesan Board of Missions has appropriated but $1,200 to this Archdeaconry for several years past, and at the last Convention $500 for the Italian work, which will cost from $1,200 to $1,500 for the year.

At least $5,000 is needed for the future work, if it is to be done as it ought to be done. The majority of the parishes are giving liberally, most of them as liberally as can be asked.

During the past year the Archdeaconry has received two new clerical members in the persons of the Rev. Edward Arthur Dodd, Ph.D., who has become the Rector of St. John's, Clifton, in succession to the Rev. C. C. Walker, who has assumed the rectorship of St. Ann's, Brooklyn, and the Rev. Wallace Henderson Watts, who has but just become Rector of St. Paul's Memorial Church, Tompkinsville, succeeding the Rev. A. L. Wood, who resigned his charge to take up mission work in Vermont.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES S. BURCH,
Archdeacon.

The Rev. W. H. Vibbrot, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That in accordance with the recommendation of the Board of Managers of Diocesan Missions the sum of $15,400 be appropriated for Missionary work in the Diocese, and that said sum be apportioned as follows:

For Archdeaconsry of Dutchess.....	$2,500
For Archdeaconsry of Orange.....	3,500
For Archdeaconsry of Westchester.....	3,000
For Archdeaconsry of Richmond.....	2,200

R. M. POTT, Treasurer.

The Treasurer of the Missionary Committee would call attention to the fact that it was impossible to pay any part of the appropriation to the Archdeaconry of New York, and to pay all other appropriations it was necessary to borrow $2,850. These loans are still unpaid.

The Rev. Dr. Ashton nominated Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie as Treasurer of the Board, and moved that the ballot be dispensed with and that he be elected as Treasurer, which was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Ashton, the ballot was dispensed with, and the following persons were elected as members of the Board of Missions :

The Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D.D.	Mr. Irving Grinnell.
The Rev. Henry M. Barbour.	Mr. Andrew C. Zabriskie.
The Rev. J. L. Parks, D.D.	Mr. Oliver G. Barton.
The Rev. John Huske.	Mr. Albert C. Rust.
The Rev. Geo. H. Toop.	Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

The Secretary presented the Report of the Woman's Auxiliary:

Report

OF THE NEW YORK BRANCH OF WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The following table gives a report of such part of the year's work as figures can tell:

MONEY.
For Domestic Missions.....	$25,629.23
“ Indian “	6,341.90
“ Colored “	6,925.17
“ Foreign “	9,609.52
BOXES.
To all fields, 186, valued at.....	$17,094.40
The Junior Department has given in money.....	$1,715.02
Boxes, 60, valued at.....	1,840.56
The total being.....	$50,220.84
and 246 boxes, valued at.....	18,934.96
The Grand Total.....	$69,155.80

New York's share of the great united offering, presented by the Woman's Auxiliary in Richmond, was $32,160.95.

Of the $25,629.23 for Domestic Missions, $15,000 was given to create a fund to be known as the Eliza Martin Seymour Perkins' Memorial Fund, and was sent to the Board of Missions to be invested. The interest accruing therefrom is to be placed towards some object under appropriation in the domestic field, as directed by the Domestic Committee.

Notwithstanding these large gifts, amounting to over $50,000, the New York Branch has yet fallen short of its apportionment this year towards the Board's appropriations by some $1,200.

The Central Committee on Church Work in Mexico having been abolished, the Foreign Committee has added that work to its other duties, and hence has additional responsibilities.

The Junior Department has undertaken more especially the educational work. Its leaders held during the year two or three normal classes for the study of missions, thus being able to supply qualified teachers for as many as twenty-four parish classes. These, could they become universal, would train up an intelligent and able body of workers which would be of inestimable benefit to the Woman's Auxiliary of the future.

One or two new branches only are added each year from different parts of the diocese. There are yet many parishes in the city and other Archdeaconries from which we are only awaiting an invitation to assist in an organization, and then to welcome as one of the whole in united work for missions.

With the increase in responsibility, and the larger results each year, comes that greater blessing, and to which it is evident all are learning to look as the only help for carrying on the work successfully. Daily noonday prayers are offered privately by hundreds of members, Missionary Bible Classes are taught, and more frequent opportunities are given for receiving the Holy Communion in connection with the Auxiliary's work. From these comes that "greater blessing," and through these opportunities we are learning surely that to spread the Gospel the Church alone exists, and that it is our blessed privilege to have a share in this the Church's work.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET A. TOMES,
President.

On motion, the Board of Missions rose and the Convention resumed its session.

The Rev. C. B. Smith, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the following persons be appointed members of the Missionary Council of the Second Department, as arranged at the recent General Convention:

Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D.	Mr. Wm. J. Schieffelin.
Rev. H. McC. Birkhead.	Mr. Eugene M. Camp.
Rev. Geo. A. Strong.	Mr. Albert C. Rust.
Rev. James E. Freeman.	Mr. F. G. R. Clarke.

The Rev. Mr. Barker offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention extends to the Rev. Robert Lewis Padgett (one of its members) hearty congratulations on his election as Missionary Bishop of East Oregon, and assures him of cordial sympathy with and an affectionate interest in his work as Missionary Bishop.

The Rev. F. Courtney, D.D., offered the Report of the Committee on Canons:

The Committee on Canons beg leave to report that they have had under consideration the amendment to Canon X., Section 1, moved by Rev. Dr. Parks at the last meeting of the Convention, and reported on page 147 of the journal.

They have come to the conclusion that while that amendment is intended to apply only to Deputies to the General Convention, it would be better to extend it to all elections, and therefore they propose the following, to be added to Canon IX., Section 1, changing the full stop to a semi-colon, "provided that if in any election a greater number of persons than the number of offices to be filled shall receive a canonical majority of the votes cast, those who up to the number of offices to be filled receive the largest canonical majorities in both orders shall be declared elected"; which was adopted.

2. Article VII. of the Constitution, approved last year in the journal, page 144, having been referred to the Committee, they have found the middle clause, beginning with the words, "In all cases other than elections," and ending, "shall be necessary to the action of the Convention," to have been there wrongly inserted, and therefore recommend the elision of said clause, and propose the article so corrected be approved and referred to the next meeting of the Convention for final action.

The proposed amendment was approved and referred to the next Convention for adoption.

3. Article I. of the Constitution, approved by the Convention, as reported in the journal of last year, is now reported by the Committee to the Convention for final action;

The proposed amendment was thereupon adopted.

4. Your Committee have carefully considered the resolution referred to them relating to the Funds for the Relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and for Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, and that suggesting a change of name for the former of these funds. The Committee are not ready to report to this Convention upon these matters, for the reason that they wish first to be informed as to the Trusts in which these funds are held, and therefore request that the subjects be left in their hands to inquire and report regarding them at the next meeting of the Convention.

The questions were recommitted to the Committee, to report next year.

5. Your Committee has carefully revised the Rules of Order, and calls attention to the fact that the only substantial alteration is the creation of a sixth Standing Committee, viz: that on Miscellaneous Business, in relation to which Rule XVII. is recommended to the Convention, it being in the language of the By-Law of the General Convention on the subject.

The report of the Committee was considered, and after several minor amendments had been made was adopted as follows:

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, the Bishop Coadjutor, or, if there be no Bishop Coadjutor, the senior Presbyterian present, shall take the Chair.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention, or, in case of his absence, some other person appointed by the Chair, shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

III. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10.

IV. The Chair shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

V. A quorum being present, the Chair shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

1. Reading of the Rules of Order.

2. In case of the absence of the Bishop, or of his inability to act, and (if there be one) of the Bishop Coadjutor, the Convention shall elect a President.

3. The election of a Secretary, who shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

4. The election of a Treasurer.

5. The appointment of six Standing Committees by the President:

(a) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention.

(b) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(c) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(d) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(e) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

(f) On miscellaneous business, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

Any Standing Committee may meet during the intervals between Conventions, and may submit a report or reports to the succeeding Convention.

6. The appointment by the President of Inspectors of Election for the Standing Committee, for the Deputies to the Federate Council, and for the Deputies and for the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention: one Clergyman and one Layman for the clerical votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the lay votes of each election.

7. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows; but the reading of such Reports, if already printed for circulation or ordered to be printed in the Journal, may be dispensed with, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

- (1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.
- (2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York.
- (3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.
- (4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.
- (5) Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York.
- (6) Report of St. Stephen's College.
- (7) Report of Sunday-school Commission.
- (8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.
- (9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

The election of Trustees of any of the foregoing Boards shall be in order in connection with the reception of their reports.

8. Miscellaneous business.

VI. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.
5. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in their order.
6. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
7. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to him.
8. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
9. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
10. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
11. Report of the Committee on Canons.
12. Reports of Special Committees.
13. Miscellaneous business.

VII. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in their order.
5. Miscellaneous business.

VIII. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not be finished, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or finished, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

IX. The address of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor shall be in order at any time.

X. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

XI. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

XII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 P.M. to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 8 to 10 P.M.

XIII. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows:

The Clergy and the Lay Delegates of the Parishes entitled to vote shall present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant; and if such second vote shall not result in an election, further votes shall be taken until all the offices are filled or until the Convention shall otherwise order.

XIV. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and all motions, when required by the Chair, shall be reduced to writing.

XV. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as herein provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it—or to substitute another for it; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a motion to amend, or to substitute, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XVI. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XVII. Every resolution offered shall be considered at once unless reference be requested. Reference may be requested by five members of every resolution, except such as may accompany the report of a committee. Such resolution shall be referred without debate by the President to the appropriate committee, or, if in the opinion of the President there be no such committee, then to a special committee, of such number as the President shall designate.

XVIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIX. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XX. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XXI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XXII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XXIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XXIV. Votes shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XXV. In taking a vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXVI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXVII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXVIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIX. When a member is called to order by the Chair, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the Chair; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXX. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXXI. The majority of a quorum shall always be requisite to an election.

XXXII. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

6. At the last Convention a proposal, made by Mr. Everett P. Wheeler, to amend Canon XII. by the addition of a new section (p. 132 of the Journal) was referred back to the Committee, with a request to confer with the proposer.

The Committee have considered the proposed amendment, and have conferred with Mr. Wheeler.

As a substitute for the proposed amendment, they recommend that Canon XII. be amended by adding a new section, to read as follows:

SEC. 5. Whenever application shall be made to the Standing Committee for their consent to an application to a Court for leave to sell or mortgage real property, which at the time of such application is used by a congregation for regular religious services, the Standing Committee shall not give their consent until it shall have been made to appear to their satisfaction that notice of the application has been given to the congregation.

Whereupon the amendment was adopted.

On motion, the Convention took its usual recess for one hour.

On reassembling, the Inspectors of Election presented their reports:

Rev. Lawrence T. Cole, D.D.	Mr. W. Bayard Cutting.
Rev. Robert V. K. Harris.	Mr. Harry C. Barker.

The Rev. P. Harrower offered the following resolution, and on motion it was referred to the Committee on Canons:

Resolved, That Canon IV. be amended by adding a section, Sec. 4, as follows: "No Church shall be admitted into union with the Church in this Diocese which is not self-supporting."

Mr. Henry L. Morris offered the following resolution, and on motion it was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Resolved, That Section 11 of Canon II. be amended so as to read as follows:

SEC. 11. The presence of at least fifty Clergymen, entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least fifty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business, except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington presented the following report:

Report

OF THE NEW YORK TRAINING SCHOOL FOR DEACONESSSES.

The New York Training School for Deaconesses opened the first Wednesday in October with a roll of 26 students, a very interesting body of young women, representing New England, the Middle and Southern States, the Middle West and the Pacific Slope. A generous percentage of these students are candidates for the mission field. Of the ten who graduated last spring, seven were set apart to the Diaconate. These new deaconesses are working in the following fields: In the Bronx, in the Dioceses of Albany and Washington, D. C., and in the Missionary Districts of Asheville, Honolulu and Tokyo. The faculty of the school has been strengthened by the following appointments:

The Rev. Milo H. Gates, Department of Missions; the Rev. Professor

Kinsman, Ecclesiastical History; the Rev. Professor Hayes, Christian Evidences, and the Rev. M. Bowyer Stewart, Greek.

A course in English has also been added to the curriculum of the school. The department for the study of Sunday-school methods and of other institutional works is being developed this year by the twofold method of study and the visitation of Sunday-schools and different philanthropic institutions throughout the city.

By the will of the late Dr. Charles Comfort Tiffany, formerly Dean of the Faculty, and, at the time of his death, a member of the Board of Trustees, the school receives a legacy of $125,000. This, it is hoped, will make possible the building, at an early day, of the permanent Deaconess Institute, the site for which was conceded some years ago on the Cathedral grounds by action of the Trustees, a design therefor having been previously approved.

For the Trustees,

W. R. HUNTINGTON,
President.

The Rev. L. T. Cole, D.D., presented the following report:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Committee on the General Theological Seminary begs leave to present the following report:

The attendance at the Seminary during the year 1906-1907 was 129, as compared with 124 in 1905-1906, and 113 in 1904-1905. The entering class this fall is of good size, and the total attendance is satisfactory.

No actual changes have taken place in the Faculty, but your Committee notes that as the Rev. Dr. Roper is absent on leave for his sabbatical year, the Rev. Dr. Denslow has been elected as Sub-Dean for the year 1907-1908.

The Committee has no further report to make at this time, but would ask leave to make a full report at the next Convention.

The Committee begs leave to nominate the following gentlemen to be Trustees of the General Theological Seminary from the Diocese of New York:

The Rev. Thos. R. Harris, D.D.	Mr. W. Bayard Cutting.
The Rev. Wm. M. Grosvenor, D.D.	Mr. James J. Goodwin.
The Rev. J. Lewis Parks, D.D.	Mr. John A. Beall.
The Rev. Wm. T. Manning, D.D.	Mr. Chas. F. Hoffman.
The Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D.	Mr. Hermann H. Cammann.

LAWRENCE T. COLE,	} Committee.
CHARLES F. CANEDY,
FRANCIS LYNDE STETSON,

The Rev. Dr. Cole offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the ballot be dispensed with, and the above-named gentlemen be elected Trustees of the General Theological Seminary for the Diocese of New York.

The Rev. P. Harrower presented the Report of the Sunday-school Commission:

Report

OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMISSION.

The most significant fact for our American Church during the past year in the department of the Sunday School, was the adoption by the General Convention of the Report of the Joint Commission on Sunday School Instruction. That report and its adoption emphasizes the very points for which the New York Commission has stood from the first, and calls upon the Church in every Diocese for action in accordance with its recommendation. This report covers such subjects as Teachers and Teacher Training; Courses of Study; Organization, Diocesan as well as Parochial; and the Spiritual Nurture of Childhood and Youth.

We need not dwell on all these. Our position and work is well known.

Two only we note. (1) Organization and what this implies, (2) The Spiritual Life of Youth.

I. Organization.

It is safe to say that the American Church has reached a point from which we have every reason to look for a great advance. The growth of Diocesan and Inter-diocesan organization, the formulation of a true subject, graded curriculum, the creation not only in this Diocese of an exhibit has been truly called "a remarkably complete and varied apparatus," but the establishment in other Dioceses also of valuable exhibits, the spread of enthusiasm which has shown itself in the Sunday School Federation and the Joint Commission of the General Convention, all these indicate a movement that is still in its earlier period of development, and whose promise for the future no one of us can venture to limit.

As bearing upon this, let us note the work of the International Association. That great body, covering its wide field of operation, has its seven field-secretaries, with six others arranged for, making a force of thirteen. To these we must add the work of state and provincial auxiliaries, which employ 158 general secretaries and department superintendents, besides a large amount of office help. And even this large corps of workers does not meet the constantly growing demand. Every denomination is feeling the pulse of this movement. It is national, not sectional; it is affecting all communions. Even the Roman Catholic Church has felt its force, and has adopted with conspicuous success the idea of the Summer School for Teacher Training and other objects, which first, under the lead of Bishop Vincent, of the Methodist Church, made its appearance at Chautauqua. And not even is this last method limited to the religious field, for the great Universities are now opening their halls and libraries each summer for a similar work in behalf of teachers in secular schools.

II. Teacher Training in the Church. In our own Church, such schools have been successfully conducted at Richfield Springs, N. Y., and at Northampton and North Adams, Mass., and the Secretary of the Commission, Dr. Smith, and others connected with it, have co-operated in the work there and elsewhere. Such a Summer School might well be arranged for the Sunday School workers of this Diocese.

In this connection, mention should be made of the work done by the Secretary during the past year; in Michigan, where he gave a month to the work of training classes and school organization, reaching in this way the many towns of the Diocese and hundreds of Sunday School teachers.

Other classes have been held by him in the Diocese of Long Island, Western Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey, and within our own Diocese at Yonkers, New Rochelle, Mamaroneck, Matteawan, Rye and New York City, a total of 186 addresses since last Convention. The total of all addresses given by him, by the Chairman of the Commission and other members, amounted in all to more than 200.

The importance of such teacher-training has been urged every year. Full allowance is made for the many practical difficulties in the way of such work. But it is well for us to know that it is actually being done on a considerable scale. "In 1905, at the International Convention, 34,000 members were reported in these training classes; fifteen months later the 34,000 had swelled to 50,000. Last year, Pennsylvania, alone, gave a diploma, after a reasonably exacting examination, to 1,005 graduates from its more than 5,000 enrolled students." This number is not large in comparison with the total number of teachers, but it is profoundly significant.

In our own Diocese 350 Teachers have been enrolled in such classes, and eight teachers have received diplomas on completion of their course of study.

"The educational problem of every century is, to find the teacher, not to found the school." Given the teacher and the school follows. This finding of the teacher can be made more and more possible in this Diocese, if the Diocese will seriously take up the question of financial support.

The large work already done by this Commission for the Church at large has been made possible in large measure by the proceeds from the Supply Department. The work of the Supply Department has grown out of the very constitution and purposes of the Commission. But we desire here to make clear the so-called commercial side of our work.

The great obstacle in the way of improvement often lies in the necessity of making money out of the product manufactured. The Commission has not primarily worked upon this basis. We have tried to make good Lesson Manuals in accordance with the best pedagogical principles. We have paid nothing to the men who wrote or prepared these manuals. Their labor was freely given, and the publication of them is so arranged as to secure the lowest possible cost to the purchaser. We stand, therefore, ready to discard any manual that proves unsatisfactory. The commercial motive has the least possible influence. The whole spirit of the Commission is flexible, free to adopt or discard, to adjust itself to the needs of the work, aiming only to serve to the best of our ability.

This may seem a visionary attitude, but we conceive that it is the only one that can possibly save our work from failure. For this reason I believe that the work of the Sunday School Commission should be supported independently of its Supply Department. Whatever is derived from that should go to its own betterment and the payment of office and clerical expenses.

III. Office Statistics.

Some extent of the work carried on at the Supply Department is to be gotten from the following data:

Statistics for a year, Nov. 1, 1906, to Nov. 1, 1907.

1. All out-going Mail	18,414 pieces
2. Expressages	1,403
	<hr/>
	19,817 pieces out
3. Typewritten letters out	1,951
4. Mail in	11,757 pieces
5. Phones and telegrams	622
6. Callers at Exhibit	2,163
7. Total new orders	5,198

Net Value of Business

- (a) Commission and Source Books sold, list value, sales in Milwaukee and New York both $17,000, about. Commission Books alone $14,176.16.
- (b) Total cash taken in, N. Y. office alone, $17,333.47. Out $15,820.15.
8. Total imprints of Commission and Source Books over 650,000 copies.
9. Of the Commission Series alone, 553,000 copies.

The Commission receives nothing from the Convention, though it does receive contributions from some few parishes and individuals. But this amount is wholly inadequate. The Supply Department pays not only its own office expenses, but more than half the salary of the Secretary of the Commission. His services have been largely in demand outside as well as in the Diocese, and are likely to be more largely so with the growth of the Sunday School Federation, of which he is the General Secretary also. But in this Diocese some more definite effort should be made for carrying into effect the organizing and development of the work. When we consider the tremendous power vested in the great staff of secretaries and superintendents in the International Association, when we see how the Diocese of Massachusetts has assumed the financial support of its Board of Religious Education, then certainly we have a right to ask that this question be taken up by the authorities of the Diocese, who alone have power to make provision for such support.

IV. The Sunday School Association, organized to further the work in behalf of the schools of the Diocese, is now conducting classes for Teacher Training at St. Andrew's, Harlem, under the General Secretary, and at Rye under Mr. Oberly, and is arranging to open such classes at the Diocesan House, and at the Church House in the Bronx. The Association has charge of Bible Sunday, asking for an offering on that day from all schools, for the advancement of the work. It sends out the Advent Mite Boxes for Diocesan Missions, and the Lenten Boxes for General Missions, of which 40,000 are printed especially for this Diocese.

VI. Spiritual Life.

Finally, attention is called to the growing need of more wisely providing for the spiritual nurture of children and youth. There is rising throughout the nation this new note. The decadence of home religion, the seepage away of youth from the Church, has called forth this demand for a new emphasis on the devotional life. We must strengthen the study side of the school, but we must go farther than this. I quote from the Report: "The Church must prepare herself to lead the child from those devotions appropriate to early childhood on to worship in the Church. She does not use as she might her own rites and ceremonies in kindling the imagination of children and teaching them the truths of the Gospel."

This language and thought are not strange on the lips of a Churchman, but they are just as strongly felt by Presbyterians and Methodists as by ourselves. And why? Because throughout the length and breadth of this land we know that the child is not being held by what we now do for him, and that we are training up a generation that does not love to worship, nor is it learning how to worship.

It is harder to-day to get people into Church: it is more difficult to hold their interest than formerly. The Church is forced, let us at once allow, to compete with a multitude of other attractions, to face an almost revolutionary change in the popular estimate of Sunday and widespread social changes—but it may also be true that the Church is herself somewhat to blame for not meeting these changes more wisely.

Looking at the subject from the point of the child, it is clear that we have something more to do than simply reorganizing our Sunday School work according to certain pedagogical principles. We may grade and sub-grade; we may hang our walls with maps and pictures; we may train our teachers to the point of finest efficiency; we may use barrels of paper-pulp and carry out our manual work to the most elaborate detail, but we shall doom ourselves to bitter disappointment unless we do something more.

The spiritual atmosphere in which the young life lives up to twelve years will largely determine its later valuations. Careful students of this subject would tell us that we have too largely emphasized the lesson-book, the study hour, the school side, and too little appealed to the ideas and emotions of worship. Let it be therefore clearly understood that when in this report we speak of a general lifting up of the whole work of the Sunday School we are not speaking only of a new set of school books, new appointments for school work and better school administration, but rather we are speaking of a better religious education, and that this education means, as all true education must mean, the nurture of the child's spiritual as well as his intellectual nature. What Horace Bushnell meant by Christian nurture; what our blessed Lord meant when He said, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself"—that indicates the ground to be covered by the Church in her work for youth.

Questions bearing on this condition are now coming to the front as never before, whenever Sunday School Conferences are held. They indicate that deeper and profounder sense of something at fault in our ordinary methods of work for children.

Which should be placed first: school institutions or church worship?

How shall Sunday School devotion be heightened in value?

Is it desirable that any changes should be made in our present Prayer Book, allowing a larger liberty when it is used for children's services?

Should there be prepared and authorized additional offices suited to the comprehension of children and leading on by a natural development to the so-called maturer offices of church worship?

How shall public worship be so ordered as to enable it to produce the most enduring impression on the thought, the emotion, the imagination, and will of the child?

Some constructive work along these lines must be done. The Church must begin to make richer use of her own system for their end. How far it will involve new services: how far the enrichment of existing offices: how far the richer, larger use of this our supreme Office of Worship, these are matters to be considered. But of this there can be no doubt—we are to witness if our work for religious education is not to become a multitude of one-sided activities and pitiful ingenuities—we are to witness a revival of spiritual life in the Child and for the Child. This the Church must do. And the Sunday School must feel the pulse of this as its chiefest power for good.

On motion of the Rev. P. Harrower, the following were elected members of the Sunday-school Commission:

Rev. Pascal Harrower.

Rev. Wm. Walter Smith, M.D.

Mr. H. H. Pike.

Rev. Henry Mottet, D.D.

Rev. John P. Peters, D.D.

Rev. Geo. R. Van De Water, D.D.

Rev. Harry P. Nichols, D.D.

Rev. De Witt L. Pelton, Ph.D.

Rev. Milo H. Gates.

Rev. Wm. L. Evans.

Rev. Thos. Henry Sill.

Rev. Frank Flood German.

Rev. Ernest C. Saunders.

Rev. Everett P. Smith.

Rev. Thornton F. Turner.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Dunnell, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the contribution to be required, according to Canon XVI. of the Diocese, from every congregation of the Diocese to the Diocesan Fund for the conventional year 1907-1908, be $1\frac{1}{4}$ per cent. on the amount of the salary of its clergyman.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention, recognizing the great importance of promoting moral training and the development of good citizenship through the agency of the Public Schools, and desirous of encouraging any well-considered movement looking to that end, hereby empower the Commission on Sunday-schools to appoint from among its members a committee to confer with the International Committee on Moral Training and the Development of Good Citizenship through the agency of the Public Schools.

Mr. Edward Merritt offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, The name of the Rev. Wm. O. Lawson, D.D., disappeared many years ago from the roll of the clergy of this diocese, owing to his long residence in Europe; and whereas the Bishop of the Diocese has now restored his name to the roll; therefore,

Resolved, That this Convention hereby approves such action of the Bishop.

Mr. F. V. B. Goodwin offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the matter of the creation of a Clergymen's Retiring Fund be referred to the Committee on Inadequate Salaries of Clergymen, to consider and report upon the same at the next Convention.

The Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund be requested, and are hereby empowered to use any surplus in their hands, for the relief of widows and orphans during the Convention Year.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Batten, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That 1,500 copies of the Journal of the Convention be printed, and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

The Rev. Dr. Clendenin offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That 1,500 copies of the address of the Bishop, and 1,500 copies of the address of the Bishop Coadjutor, be printed separately for distribution.

On motion of the Rev. Mr. Chew, the Committee on Inadequate Salaries of the Clergy was continued, and instructed to report to the next Convention.

The Bishop Coadjutor offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention does herewith extend to the Reverend Dr. Thomas R. Harris, who for the past twenty years has been its efficient Secretary, its grateful appreciation of the faithful, conscientious and intelligent manner in which he has performed the duties of that office, and of the invaluable service which during his occupancy of it he has rendered the Church in this Diocese.

It was moved that after the reading of the minutes and the singing of Hymn 672, the Convention adjourn sine die, which motion was adopted.

the minutes were then read and approved.

The Bishop pronounced the Benediction and declared the Convention adjourned sine die.

HENRY C. POTTER,
Bishop of New York.

DAVID H. GREER,
Bishop Coadjutor.

THOS. R. HARRIS,
Secretary of Convention.

APPENDIX A.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS.

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY:

The ecclesiastical year that ends to-day has not been less noteworthy than any of its predecessors in the number of men wanted to these councils and conspicuous for their high character and eminent services whose places have been made vacant by death. I will ask you to rise and stand while I recite their names, and then I will ask the Bishop Coadjutor to say the prayers appropriate to our common bereavement.

DECEASED.

The date to which, as I hope the final action of this Body will transfer the assembling of its Annual Convention, and which, under the provisions of our Constitution, vouchsafes to us the discretion under which to-day we are convened, makes it possible to speak of our General Convention as behind and not before us; and affords a fitting opportunity for reference to its various legislation.

Fitting because, as we may wisely remember, the Church in the Diocese of New York, while, of course, claiming our pre-eminent interest, may not engage that interest exclusively; nor permit us to forget that as the parish is but an integer in a larger whole, which is the Diocese, so the Diocese, in turn, is but a fragment in a whole, larger still, which is the whole Church—first in the United States, and then all round the world.

And that large and glorious fact, after our recent General Convention in Richmond, we may proudly and joyously remember. I can recall, as some of you can, earlier General Conventions in the history of our American Church, towards whose beginnings we looked with dread, and of whose endings, howsoever little their sharp and acrid rivalries contributed to set forward the Kingdom of God, we hailed with profound thankfulness.

But there was nothing of this sort, I venture to assert, in any mind with reference to our last General Convention. Whether it was because we began by looking back, to our feeble beginnings at Jamestown in Virginia, or forward, to our vast and inspiring opportunities all over this land, and far beyond it, I cannot say, but the spirit of the General Convention from the beginning was devout, hopeful and courageous; and its legislation was worthy of its spirit. There was the rare presence and speech of the Bishop of London to enkindle us; and there were the fraternal voices of the Archbishop of the West Indies, the Bishops of St. Albans, Quebec, Mackenzie River, of Bishop Montgomery of the Venerable Society of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, and others, to all of whom we listened with equal appreciation and respect. Best of all, there was in both houses of the Convention a generous and candid temper, which was pervaded all the while by the finer sub-tone of a fraternal and affectionate sympathy.

And these were seen in the legislation which was accomplished. I shall not attempt here to rehearse it all, but it had one or two leading features which I should be blameworthy if I overlooked.

1. One of them was concerned with an effort which, as I think, happily failed, to introduce into our American Church the so-called Provincial System. One need not be indifferent, or insensible, to the advantages of such a system to recognize its possible mischiefs. But they are precisely those which threaten the Republic; and, for the same reason, are to be dreaded and shunned. Our common peril in this land is from the growth of sectionalism, and the Provincial System, whatever incidental conveniences it might bring with it, menaced our ecclesiastical unity, and was destined, inevitably, to isolate "localism" in the Church and to emphasize local idiosyncrasies. No emergency has, as yet, arisen demanding such a form of relief from present inconveniences, and no prospect of relief from possible inconveniences in the future could at all warrant the introduction of such cumbrous, pretentious and disintegrating machinery. A part of it was turned aside, indeed, by the ingenuity of its advocates into the Missionary Canon; but it remains to be seen whether, even there, it will do more than furnish a fresh illustration of the fact that it is not more "wheels" that the Church wants half so much as more of "the Living Creature within the wheels!"

2. Another problem, cognate to that to which I have already referred, was the problem of Suffragan Bishops. A Suffragan Bishop is, the dictionary tells us, "an auxiliary bishop, consecrated to assist the ordinary bishop of a see in a particular part of his diocese, but with no right of ordinary jurisdiction."* And there were undoubtedly two sets of circumstances which, from wholly different standpoints, influenced those who voted for the constitutional amendment which made Suffragan Bishops possible. One was a situation in which work had grown too large for the individual activities of him who was charged with it. The other was the situation existing in some dioceses where different races were believed by many to demand different Episcopal ministrations. As the proposed amendment was adopted at Richmond, a joint committee having been appointed to prepare a canon "of Suffragan Bishops," framed in accordance with the proposed amendment to the Constitution, and to report to the next General Convention, it will, after the ratification of that action by the next General Convention, be possible, with the consent of the Bishop, to elect anywhere a Suffragan Bishop, who may be charged either with the care of a particular race or with the performance from time to time of particular duties ordinarily falling to the Bishop of the Diocese. So far as these might be bishops of our own race the embarrassments of a position anomalous, indefinite, and so far as the Diocese might be concerned, wholly unprovided for, was frankly recognized, but it was believed by many that the imposition upon a rector of certain Episcopal responsibilities while he continued a rector might be a valuable training for larger tasks and obligations to which, as the proposed constitutional amendment provides, any Suffragan Bishop, as eligible to be elected a missionary or diocesan bishop, might be called.

But, undoubtedly, the more especial significance of this legislation was believed by many others to reside in its competency to provide for the problem of race bishops. As to this problem, there was wide divergence of opinion among those more especially concerned with it, but I think their brethren who were not especially challenged by it may venture to add profound unwillingness to concur in any legislation which seemed to dismiss any race to an outer darkness. No one, of course, who has not, by long residence, confronted our great race problem, can safely dogmatize about it; but as little can any one, who knows the conscientious anxiety of our Southern brethren to discharge their duty to every race for which they are in any wise responsible, deny to any and every plan which has been devised among them at least the sympathy that goes out to a good intention. I am not myself greatly sanguine as to results, whether for overworked bishops in the North, or East, or West, that may come from the Church's permissive legislation in regard to Suffragan Bishops, nor for Southern bishops who hope, by a white or a negro Suffragan, to solve the problems arising out of differences of race or color; but you and I, I am sure, will rejoice if by such a provision that most difficult and perplexing problem may find its solution.

There are others that challenge the attention of Christian men to-day, and none that is more grave and momentous than that which is involved in the complex relations of capital and labor. What is the just measure of the responsibilities of wealth? What is that "eternal equity" which, as some of us believe, lies at the root of the often exaggerated and reckless demands of underpaid labor? How can those happier relations which once existed between workmen and those for whom they toiled be best promoted, or restored? I have discussed all these questions, and others that are akin to them, at length and with entire candor elsewhere, and I may not venture to enter upon them here. But that they are questions that belong to the pulpit and to the ministry of the religion of Jesus Christ no man who has read the pages of the prophet Isaiah and of the four Gospels can honestly deny; and in this connection I ask your especial attention to the admirable Report of the Joint Commission on the Relations of Capital and Labor (I need hardly say that I did not write it) adopted by the recent General Convention; and also to the preamble and resolution relating to it, which, D. V., will be presented to this Convention by the rector of St. Michael's Church, New York.

It was—even if unconsciously—germane to this subject that the General Convention adopted a resolution which will enable the Reverend Clergy to give to their people, at such times as are not appropriated on the Lord's Day to wonted acts of worship, such teaching on social, moral and economic questions as we all greatly need if we are to deal with them in the spirit of our Master's Gospel. We shall encounter at this point the inherited pre-conceptions and the devout apprehensions of many of the faithful laity, and of these I beg you, my dear brethren of the clergy, in the Spirit of Him who said, "He shall gently lead those that are with young," to be considerate. New ideas, like infantile companionships, demand, in the greater advance of the Church's life, infinite tenderness and patience. And those of us who are hoping for great things from that enlargement of the Church's teaching power, which, as many of us believe, has most wisely and opportunely been given her, may well remember that that policy of administration, whether in the pulpit or at the altar, which needlessly wounds and shocks is not likely either to win or to edify.

And this brings me, my dear brethren of the laity, to speak of your obligations to those who are over you in the Lord concerning a very sublunary aspect of those inevitable changes as to which also our recent General Convention took action. Of one aspect of it, which is purely local, it belongs to me first to speak. As this Convention knows, there are in the Diocese of New York a number of missionary stations, especially in Rockland, Ulster and Sullivan counties, in which the support of the missionary must largely depend upon contributions from without. It is not likely that these mission stations will soon, if ever, become self-supporting, but their value to the Church and to the commonwealth, as witnessing to a pure faith and high moral standards, is simply incalculable. We have been wont—as I presume we shall at this Convention—to vote a "lump sum" to be divided among the several Archdeaconries for the support of the missionaries of these stations, and last year, in a fine burst of what may be called resolute generosity, we added to this gross amount a large amount to be appropriated to that most vast of all our missionary fields—the Archdeaconry of New York. Of that large sum, not one penny has been paid, and at the time when the last quarterly payments fell due to the Diocesan Missionaries our Treasurer was so far short of money with which to meet pledged obligations to men living upon scanty stipends that he had to borrow two thousand dollars, for which he is still indebted.

The situation has come to pass out of conditions which we have long outgrown. When the treasury of the Diocesan Missionary Fund, in old times, was empty, the late Mr. James Pott, for more than forty years our beloved Diocesan Treasurer, was wont to call upon a few friends now, like himself, passed on to their reward, to make up the deficit. But, amiable and generous as was the act of those who did so, the system for which it stood was equally unbusiness-like and impossible. It belongs to us, men and brethren, to end it. And for that purpose I ask the Convention to appoint a Committee of Ways and Means which shall co-operate with the Treasurer of the Missionary Committee and inaugurate such methods, and secure their effective operation, as shall enable the Treasurer regularly to pay the stipends of our hard-worked missionaries; and so at least relieve these faithful men from unnecessary financial anxieties.

It was in the spirit of such a purpose that the General Convention unanimously adopted the following resolution, with a reference to which I may fitly conclude this Address:

By both Houses of that Body it was

Resolved, That this Convention recommend to the several dioceses that, at their next Annual Convention, they shall take action on the subject of better salaries for the clergy.

Plainly, the terms of this resolution make it our duty to deal without delay with a matter of pressing importance. That importance grows out of facts which are not indeed ecclesiastical, but which are yet of universal recognition. The stipends of the clergy are at best desperately meagre, and the achievement by men in Holy Orders of a decent and honest maintenance has in it often elements of the heroic, of which I wish that I might speak as I am often moved to do. But the situation to-day is purely commercial and financial. Money, according to our present standards, is of steadily diminishing purchasing power. The present financial disturbances may temporarily check this tendency, but their effect in that connection will be only temporary. Fuel, and food, and clothing will not be likely to be cheaper in the future, but dearer, and those who are able to do so, both clergy and laity, must take thought in this connection for their less favored brethren. Many plans have occurred to me in connection with this urgent business, but it will be best that this Body shall appoint a committee to which the resolution of the General Convention which I have just read may be referred, with which I shall be most glad to co-operate, and to whom the whole subject may be entrusted.

And now, brethren, I commend you to God and the Word of His Grace. May you be built up in His most holy faith and fear, and finally have vouchsafed to you an inheritance among all them that are sanctified!

ADDRESS OF BISHOP GREER

One of the purposes for which we meet in Annual Convention, and perhaps the chief one, is to note the progress which the Church is making in this particular section of the vineyard of Jesus Christ, and to take such mutual counsel and wise and prudent action as will, we hope, contribute to its progress in the future. This being the case, it may not be amiss to stop at times and consider what that progress is at which, as a Christian Church, our efforts are directed, and how it is promoted. And what is it? Is it something to be gauged or measured and adjudged by figures and statistics and parochial reports and offerings and collections and confirmation classes and other similar statements? These are at least the indications of it, but they are only indications, outward and visible signs, tokens on the surface, which, while they show it, do not describe what in itself it is.

For Progress in itself, or in its best and truest sense, is not so much a quantitative as a qualitative term. It is spirit and not number, life and not volume, experience and not dimension. It is in short character growth, and which is in the Christian wrought by the experience of a fellowship; and two kinds of fellowship. A fellowship first with Christ, not merely with the teaching of Christ, His sayings and His sermons, although including that; but chiefly and primarily it is fellowship with a Person. And not again with a Person who simply was once close and near to men, and whose personal influence was at the time so great, so ideally great that it still survives and always will survive, so that He through it to-day does more or less control us like "those dead and sceptred sovereigns who still rule our spirits from their urns." No, not that; not fellowship with the surviving influence of a person, but with a surviving Person, the risen, the living, the surviving Jesus Christ.

That is what originally the Christian Gospel was, and so it was proclaimed, and so the Church proclaimed it and continued to proclaim it; not with a cry of "Back to Christ," but "On and up to Christ," pressing towards a closer fellowship with Christ, and in that way to some extent reproducing Christ, in that way promoting more and more upon the earth a Christ-character growth.

That is what the Church is trying now to do, or should try to do, and that is what the Parish, as a fraction part of the Church, should also try to do; and whatever means it may from time to time employ, that should be its aim, its ultimate end and aim, which must not be forgotten or crowded out or overlooked, or by a multiplicity of more or less absorbing parochial particulars, its guilds and clubs and brotherhoods and social organization, buried out of sight, but which must be always steadily kept in view—the making of Christian character through fellowship with Christ.

But there is another kind of fellowship which is also needed in the making of Christian character, and that is a fellowship with the fellowship of Christ, or, in other words, with the Church of Christ, the whole Church of Christ, His Church in all the world. That is what in part at least the Christian Church is for, is why there is a Church and not merely an aggregation of separate and detached individual Christians scattered over the earth, with no organic bond to bind them and to hold them and weld them into one. But a Church, a body, an organism, a living organism, uniting each to all, so that each may have thorough fellowship with all, something together with them all, something from them all, some common aim and purpose, some common life of all.

The French critic, Renan, is reported to have said that what welds a people into a nation and in each of its members forms a national type of character, a patriotic type, is the consciousness of great deeds done in common and the wish to do still more. In like manner, it is the consciousness of the fellowship, the whole fellowship, the consciousness of the Church, the whole Church, of what in all the ages past the Christian Church has done, of what in all the lands it is trying now to do, the consciousness in short which we to-day its members have, of what is done together, of what is done in common, and the wish to do still more, that will tend to overcome or banish and remove our personal isolations, our parochial isolations, and to weld us together consciously into a Church, and in doing so to develop a larger and stronger type of personal character in us, an ecumenical type, more catholic and more Christian. And that is a type of character which cannot be developed except, as going beyond parochial bounds and limits, Diocesan bounds and limits or National bounds and limits, we put ourselves into sympathy with the ecumenical scope, the world-wide empire scope, of the Church of Jesus Christ.

It was, I think, Mozoomdar who, in speaking of English Missions in India, criticised them on the ground that they were English Missions. They had been so long confined, he said, to that particular nation that they had too much of an English character in them and of an English image on them, and not the image of Him in Whom there is neither Jew nor Greek, circumcision nor uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free, but Who is all and in all, and Whom, by our sympathy and fellowship with all, we can more completely in ourselves express.

And was it not a true criticism, with indeed a true and needed lesson in it? To draw a circle premature around the Christian Gospel or around the Christian Church in presenting the Christian Gospel, to limit or restrict it to some particular nation or some particular people, the people of a Diocese or the people of a parish, is to make provincial that which is meant to be, and which essentially is, universal, marring thus or dwarfing thus the Christian character growth, and making it provincial, and by parochialising its environment, making it parochial.

But the environment of the Christian man is not provincial, is not parochial, it is ecumenical. He belongs not exclusively nor chiefly to his parish. He was not baptized into the Diocese but into the Church of God. He is, first of all, a citizen in the great far-reaching kingdom and commonwealth of Christ. Its interests are his interests, its conflicts in the world are his conflicts in the world; its purposes and aims and propagandist efforts, its scope and mission on the earth, all of these are his, and which as he feels them or which as he shares them will tend to develop more and more a vital, strong and virile Christian character in him, an ecumenical character, of more commanding type, of more imperial type, an empire-building type. And that is what is needed in the Christian Church to-day. For the Christian Church is meant to be an empire-making force, and men to-day are needed, Christian men are needed, Christian laymen, who have caught and felt and in themselves become, through their personal sympathy with the world-wide empire scope of the Church of Jesus Christ, empire-making men. These are the men who can do, these are the men who will do, who will more effectively do the Church's work at home, in the Diocese and in the parish. These are the men who will have the patience, who will have the courage, who will have the vision to make that work at home, in the diocese and the parish, a more successful work, a more progressive work.

It has been said of Lord Kitchener, the man who might be fitly called "the Apostle of Accomplishment," that he worked at little things and watched and waited for great. And why? Because he saw in the little the vision of the great. And so in the Christian Church. It is the man on whom the vision light has dawned of the great imperial mission, the empire-building mission of the Church of Jesus Christ, who will have the zeal to do the little things at home, to run and not be weary, to walk and not be faint, and, what is more and harder still, having done them all, those little things, to stand, faithfully, patiently and steadfastly, to stand, working in the little with the vision of the great.

I am not therefore forgetting, my brethren of the Clergy, that great and pressing parish work which has been put upon you, and to which you do so freely and so fully give, and with a cheerful sacrifice, your service and yourselves. No, I am not forgetting it; I am remembering it, and in what seems to me the most effective way, I am trying to help you in it. For what is it that most you need to enable you to do it? Not more and better machinery to awaken and diffuse what is after all but a superficial interest, a passing surface glow, easily produced and as easily effaced. No, not that; but as someone has expressed it, it is not rouge but blood that is needed; not interest but passion, that passionate aim and purpose, that passionate desire which comes from a sympathy with the great imperial task and mission in the world of the Church of Jesus Christ.

With a few such men as these in each of our different parishes, men who are in sympathy with the whole struggling fellowship of Jesus Christ on earth, in this and all the lands—what impetus would be given, what enthusiasm would be given, kindling and contagious, to all our parish work, to all our diocesan and missionary work, with no slackness in the one and no deficit in the other.

That it seems to me is the greatest need of the Christian Church at present; not machinery, but Men, men who have the spirit, men who have the vision of Christian empire in them. Given that and everything else will follow. And it is an encouraging sign that such men are appearing in the Christian Church to-day. No one who was present at the General Convention in Richmond last month could have failed to note it, for such men were there, whose presence helped to make it the most notable missionary Convention in the history of the American Church. Perhaps it was the result in part of the Men's Thank Offering movement, or perhaps it was due to a deeper and stronger spiritual movement which is making itself felt to-day in the Christian Church at large. I know not. But this I do know; that many men came to that Convention and many more went from it who, rising above all party lines and all the old marks and traces of party lines, determined to go and give themselves in fellowship with Christ and in fellowship with His fellowship, to His great imperial task and mission in the world. A motion was made in that Convention to give to the Men's Thank Offering movement a permanency in the Church, with a regular and stated triennial recurrence, but wisely, I think, that motion did not prevail. For we have not fully met our missionary apportionment for the Church's general work. This should first be done; and it can be done and will be when the men of the Church are made to see and recognize and feel that the Christ-man's burden in the world, his empire-building burden, is their burden too, which they must share with Him. Then we shall meet easily and gladly, not in response to a duty but in the exercise of a privilege, our missionary obligations, our diocesan obligations, our parochial obligations, and contribute thus to the growth and progress of the Church.

I have but a word to add: Next year will mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Consecration to the Episcopate of the Bishop of this Diocese, and I beg to recommend to the Convention that some step be taken now, through the appointment of a committee, for the appropriate commemoration of that notable event in the history of the Diocese. And, in doing this, I venture to express the confident belief that whatever form it takes in the way of a personal tribute, nothing would be more acceptable and gratifying to him than such a Commemorative Service as would tend to establish more fully and more firmly, not only here but everywhere, the Kingdom of Jesus Christ.

The above figures represent only the offerings of the parishioners. In addition, the Rector raised nearly $1,700 in the city, which was spent on church furniture, windows, etc. The Rector's salary was paid by Bishop Greer and Dr. Huntington.

Since our last report, the Parish House has been completed. It is a substantial building, 80 ft. long and 30 ft. wide, situated on the church property at the corner of Woodlawn Road and Bainbridge Avenue. The site comprises six city lots and is all paid for. The Parish House, including furniture, cost about $14,000. The land cost $10,000. There is a debt of $5,000. The estimated value of all the property is about $30,000, for the land has appreciated in value very much since it was purchased a year and a half ago.

The first service was held in the new Parish House on Sunday, January 20, 1907.

It is our plan to build the rectory next, and, last of all, the Church.

In April, 1907, the Parish took title to six lots to be used as a site for a group of Parish buildings. The lots are situated on the west side of Ogden Avenue directly opposite 163d Street and run back to Summit Avenue, giving a plotage of 75 x 190 feet, with frontage on two streets. A house and barn which stand on the new site will be used for parish purposes. The price paid was $21,250.

The Rev. Edward H. Kettell, D.D., died during the year. He had served this Parish faithfully for twelve years, and there are many among God's poor and afflicted who remember him with love and gratitude.

A very perplexing problem is presented in Harlem by the conspicuous rapid change in population. Japhet is being supplanted by Shem and Ham. The outcome of it none can foretell.

The increased burden of support of a parish under these conditions is a subject for consideration by Churchmen in the city and diocese. That we still minister to very large numbers and are able, besides meetings all our obligations, to retire five thousand dollars of our debt each year is encouraging.

We regret that we cannot give more to Missions, but we are determined to be just first, then generous.

A large and convenient Parish House is now completed and in use. This adds very materially to the efficiency of the parish work.

There are many people connected with the Church who are not Episcopalians. From them our support is largely drawn.

The Parish House is being used practically every day of the week. A well-equipped gymnasium is in use, having a superior instructor. A large Cadet Corps is now organized and at work. Young people's societies are doing good work. The Woman's Guild is doing splendid service for the Parish.

For an indefinite period the Communicant List has not been corrected. An attempt has now been made; but, even with the large number deducted, some names are retained, with a charitable hope that they may yet be found at the Lord's Table.

Many have removed without Letters of Transfer, and thus a larger number have been reported than the facts warrant. Some living in the vicinity, entered as Communicants, in almost four years have not been to the Holy Communion.

The Study in the Rectory was substantially enlarged in May, 1906. On June 21, 1906, the Church of St. Mary the Virgin, Chappaqua, a memorial to Muriel G. Clendenin, was consecrated by the late Bishop Seymour, acting for the Bishop of New York.

In September, 1906, Mr. H. Goodwin Holmes resumed the charge of the organ and vested choir, much to the satisfaction of the Parish.

On October 3, 1906, St. John's Guild held its tenth annual meeting.

This guild of ladies built and owns the Rectory, and has purchased a plot for a new church.

A building fund for the erection of the church has been created.

APPENDIX D.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to the Canon, from the following clergymen of the Diocese, not having parochial or missionary charge:

THE REV. WILMER P. BIRD.

"During the past year I have performed clerical duty as the occasion arose. On Christmas Day, Ash Wednesday and Easter Day I celebrated the Holy Communion and preached at the mission of the Holy Spirit, Bronx Borough, and also had charge of the summer services at the same mission during June and July. During August I had charge of the services at St. Mary's, Mott Haven."

THE REV. DAVID A. BONNAR.

"He has continued to serve as Chaplain to St. Michael's Home, Mamaroneck. While in residence the Holy Eucharist has been celebrated daily, Evensong said daily, with Matins and Sermon on Sundays, and Matins other Holy days. Instructions are given every Wednesday at Evensong, and at other times during Lent. Six have been baptized, and nine have received Confirmation."

THE REV. W. BROWN-SERMAN, B.D.,

"Has officiated as Chaplain of the House of Mercy, New York, and the House of Rest, New York, and as missionary at Raquette Lake from July to September."

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports to the Bishop of the Diocese of New York that during the past conventional year the priestly work requiring specification that he has done consists in the celebration of the Holy Communion about thirty times."

THE REV. JAS. STARR CLARK, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That, although he has been in good health during the past year, he has been precluded by defective eyesight from assisting the Rector of the parish in the services of the Church, and from performing any other clerical function."

THE REV. ORROK COLLOQUE, PH.D.

"During the past year I have been studying in Columbia University, and have regularly performed duties in parishes under direction of the proper authorities."

THE REV. PETER CLAUDE CREVELING.

"Since my resignation of the Church of the Holy Communion, Liberty, I have, with your consent, and by the permission of the Bishop of Long Island, officiated regularly in Christ Church, Lynbrook, and done such work as may have been assigned me by the Ordinary of Long Island, as well as assisted my brethren of New York on various occasions."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS.

"During the conventional year he has officiated as Chaplain of the House of the Annunciation, New York City."

THE REV. ARTHUR WENTWORTH H. EATON.

"During the past year he has officiated with considerable regularity in the Dioceses of New York, Long Island and Massachusetts. For some months, to the present, he has been temporarily in Boston, engaged on an historical manuscript of importance, which it will take several months longer to finish, but as a rule he officiates somewhere in New England every Sunday."

THE REV. E. H. C. GOODWIN.

"I respectfully report that during the last convention year I have resided in Maryland, rendering such service to the rector of this parish as was in my power, celebrating the Holy Communion about twenty times, and otherwise assisting when able to be at the service at the Parish Church."

THE REV. S. T. GRAHAM.

"I am doing such work for the Church as opportunity affords, assisting my brethren wherever there is a call for my services."

THE REV. RANDALL C. HALL, D.D.

"During the past year, I have assisted in the Church of St. Mary the Virgin of New York City, and have served as Chaplain to the House of the Holy Comforter, New York City. In the latter institution seven were confirmed; four were buried. For three months, in vacation, I conducted service in the chapel on Money Island, off Stony Creek, Conn."

THE REV. J. G. HAMMARSKÖLD.

"I beg leave to report that during the year ending September 1, 1907, I have attended to my duties as General Missionary to Swedes. I have conducted 221 services, taken part in 73, preached 186 sermons, delivered 62 addresses, administered Holy Communion 47 times, baptized 26 children, solemnized 19 marriages and officiated at 20 funerals."

THE REV. ARTHUR P. HUNT.

"I have been engaged during the year in my work as Instructor in the Department of Ethics in the General Theological Seminary. During part of last winter I acted as priest-in-charge at St. Barnabas' Church, Irvington-on-Hudson."

THE REV. JOHN VAUGHAN LEWIS, D.D.

"I have to report that during the last conventional year I have acted as locum tenens at Grace Church, Ridgway, Penn., five weeks; at St. Peter's Church, Uniontown, Penn., eight weeks, including Lent and Easter; at St. Mary's Memorial, Pittsburgh, Penn., four weeks; and have supplied the Sunday services at Grace Church, Madison, N. J., four weeks. Most of the rest of the year I have been disabled from duty by infirmity. I have baptized two adults and 5 infants and solemnized 1 marriage and 2 burials, all of which have been duly reported elsewhere. I have not been able to undertake any duty since July 24th, and am still unable."

THE REV. WM. G. W. LEWIS.

"In this my annual salutation to you, I can say that my health is fairly good; that I have been permitted to assist at various times in the services of the Church, and to preach twice. I have also baptized one child. My health is fairly good for a man of my age."

THE REV. RALPH WOOD KENYON.

"During the past conventional year it has been my privilege to officiate and assist at services in parishes and missions in the Dioceses of New York, Long Island and Maine, as opportunity offered."

THE REV. W. MCGLATHERY.

"I am compelled again to report that I have been unable during the past year to do the work of the ministry, by reason of impaired health."

THE REV. EDMUND S. MIDDLETON.

"In addition to his duties as Master in Trinity School, he has officiated and preached, as opportunity offered, in this and other dioceses."

THE REV. G. L. NICHOLAS, M.D.

"I continue as the assistant chaplain at St. Mary's Hospital for Children, the daily Mass being my principal duty. Besides this, I have baptized five persons and heard one confession. I preached the Passion on Good Friday, and have preached upon many other occasions. During July and August I supplied the pulpit at St. John's Church, Passaic, New Jersey.

"With humility, I am persuaded that in preaching I have been given grace to declare the simple Catholic Faith in its fulness, holding back nothing.

"Failing other provision, I continue to earn the support of myself and family by the exercise of my medical profession."

THE REV. J. NEWTON PERKINS.

"Since last September he has officiated in many churches by invitation, and has been temporarily in charge of services at the Church of the Heavenly Rest and at St. James', New York City, and of St. George's Chapel at York Harbor, Maine. He has baptized four infants and one adult, has officiated at five funerals and solemnized one marriage. These services have been in addition to his daily duties as corresponding secretary of the American Church Building Fund Commission."

THE REV. D. BRAINARD RAY.

"During the past two years I have had no parochial charge. I have, however, gladly taken any work I could find to do.

"I have baptised three children, officiated at eight funerals, administered Communion fourteen times, assisted at Communion sixteen times, and delivered more than sixty sermons. I shall be thankful for the opportunity of continuing in the good work."

THE REV. EDWIN B. RICE.

"He has officiated at the Church of the Redeemer, Pelham, N. Y., on every Lord's Day throughout the year with one or two exceptions, and during the week days has been constantly engaged with his duties at the Church Missions House."

THE REV. WILFORD L. ROBBINS, D.D.

"During the year just past I have been performing the duties incumbent on me as Dean of the General Theological Seminary. During that time I have also preached nearly every Sunday, except during the summer, in New York and elsewhere."

THE REV. JOHN J. ROBERTS, D.D.,

"Most respectfully reports: That in the sixty-second year of his ministry, and the eighty-eighth of his age, he is patiently awaiting the Master's call to 'go over to the other side of the Lake.'"

THE REV. WILLIAM C. RODGERS.

"After leaving Millbrook on September 1, 1906, I celebrated the Holy Communion, preached and conducted services in various places until January 1, 1907. I then became an assistant priest on the staff of St. Agnes' Chapel, Trinity Parish, where I have been and am exercising the offices of my ministry."

THE REV. BERNARD SCHULTE, D.D.

"Since March 1st of this year I have been performing the duties incumbent on me as Chaplain of St. Luke's Home for Aged Women and of the Home for Old Men and Aged Couples in this city."

THE REV. WILLIAM J. SEABURY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That since the date of his last report, May 1, 1906, he has attended as usual to the duties of his professorship in the General Theological Seminary, and has exercised his ministry as occasion required, having officiated in celebrating Holy Eucharist 30 times; assisting at Celebration, once; Morning and Evening Prayer, 41 times; Preaching, 3 times; Funerals, 3; Assisting at Services, 7 times, and solemnizing Marriage, once."

THE REV. CORNELIUS B. SMITH, D.D.

"During the twelve months I have frequently officiated in many parishes, including my dear St. James', where I always enjoy the hearty welcome of the Rector and of parishioners, old and new.

"These years of work without parochial responsibility are most refreshing and inspiring. They give time for service on committees of the City Mission Society and other organizations; and they bring me into touch with the good which my brethren are doing everywhere."

THE REV. J. J. ROWAN SPONG, M.A., B.C.L., LL.B.

"During the last year I celebrated the Holy Communion 12 times, said Matins twice, Evensong 3 times and preached 14 times. Since Ash Wednesday, owing to an affection of my heart, I have been unable to officiate in public."

THE REV. J. FREDERICK TALCOTT.

"During the past year I have continued my mission work in New York as heretofore, and during the summer have acted as minister-in-charge of St. George's Church, Remson Hills, Seabright, New Jersey."

THE REV. WALTER THOMPSON, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That during the past conventional year he has celebrated the Holy Communion twenty times, preached thirteen times, officiated at two marriages, two funerals, and frequently assisted at other services of the Church."

THE REV. HENRY N. WAYNE.

"Under the direction of the Archdeacon he has, during the past year, taken duty in various parishes of the Archdeaconry of Westchester, his services being recorded in the records of the said parishes."

THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH
IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

As Adopted October 11, 1796 ; and Amended October 17, 1827 ; October 2, 1834 ;
October 4, 1839 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 26, 1850 ; September 28, 1860 ; September 28, 1882 ; September 26, 1889 ; September 14, 1902 ;
September 28, 1905 ; November 15, 1906 ; November 14, 1907.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year. It shall be held at the Cathedral on the second Wednesday in November, unless the bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, or, in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, unless the Standing Committee shall appoint another place or time.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall consist of the Bishop and the Bishop-Coadjutor (if there be one) of the Diocese and of Clerical and Lay Members.

The Clerical Members shall be those Clergymen canonically resident within the Diocese not less than six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, who shall be either

Archdeacons of the Diocese, or settled in some Church in union with the Convention, or in the Cathedral, or employed as Missionaries under the direction of the Convention, or engaged within the Diocese as Professors or Instructors in any incorporated institution of learning, or as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated charitable institution, or Clergymen who, having attained the age of sixty-five years, shall have retired from the active work of the Ministry after holding for not less than ten years one or more of the positions hereinbefore named.

The Lay Members shall be male Delegates from the several Churches in union with the Convention, not exceeding three from each Church, chosen by the Vestry or Congregation.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with such services as shall be approved by the Bishop, or in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body ; and in voting, the Clergy shall vote by individuals, and the Laity by Congregations ; and when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention, prior to the last Wednesday in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Delegate or Delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to a vote for each Church or Chapel ; and a majority of votes of the two orders jointly shall be decisive ; but if in any case it be required by five votes, the two orders shall vote separately in the manner aforesaid, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision. In the case of electing a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, agreeably to the mode last prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

Wherever in the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the standing Committee, in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

ARTICLE IX.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows : A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention ; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANONS.

Adopted October 2, 1834 ; and amended October 4, 1839 ; October 1, 1841 ; September 30, 1842 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 27, 1844 ; September 28 and 30, 1845 ; September 29, 1848 ; September 26, 1851 ; October 1, 1852 ; September 29, 1859 ; September 28, 1860 ; October 2, 1863 ; September 27, 1866 ; November 15, 1867 ; September 29, 1870 ; September 28, 1872 ; September 25, 1873 ; September 28, 1877 ; September 26, 1884 ; October 1, 1885 ; September 30 and October 1, 1886 ; September 29, 1887 ; September 27, 1888 ; September 26, 1889 ; September 25, 1890 ; and October 1, 1891 ; September 27 and 28, 1893 ; September 27, 1894 ; September 26, 1895 ; October 1, 1896 ; September 30, 1897 ; September 29, 1898 ; September 27, 1900 ; September 26, 1901 ; September 24 and 25, 1902 ; November 15, 1906 ; November 14, 1907.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged ; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only ; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "Of the Filling of Vacant Cures," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate ; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least thirty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least thirty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. The calling of the names of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present, provided that evidence satisfactory to the Convention of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall take means to secure a correct list of the Clergy entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates who are present at the Convention.

SEC. 16. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 17. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 18. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application ; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Semiary ; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5.—Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed.

It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed ; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witnesses or witnesses required by the civil law ; the name of each person buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church ; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of Communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

SEC. 5. The Register contemplated by this Canon shall at all times be subject to inspection by the Bishop or by such person as he may appoint.

SEC. 6. Upon the dissolution of a Parish the Register, provided for by this Canon, shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention shall cause the said Register to be deposited with the Bishop, to be under his care for the legitimate purposes thereof.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon * thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

SEC. 1. Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election: provided that if in any election a greater number of persons than the number of offices to be filled shall receive a canonical majority of the votes cast, those who up to the number of offices to be filled receive the largest canonical majorities in both orders shall be declared elected.

SEC. 2. The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council, shall be as follows :

Any member of the Convention may send to the Secretary, in writing, on or before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations, signed by himself, for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and for members of the Federate Council. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary, at the beginning of the second day's session, in the form of a ballot, on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first ballot these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent ballots, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. No ballot shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled, and the number of vacancies to be filled shall be printed on each ballot.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place, near the entrance to the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations so received, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and Deputies to the Federate Council; and these names shall also be printed on the back of the ballot provided by the Secretary.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at each second regular annual meeting next succeeding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop, also, from time to time shall designate one of the Provisional Deputies to supply, either temporarily or permanently, any vacancy caused by the death, absence or inability of any Deputy. During such period as shall be stated in the certificate issued to him by the Bishop, the Provisional Deputy so designated shall possess, and shall be entitled to exercise, the power and authority of the Deputy in place of whom he shall have been designated.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

At every stated Convention there shall be an election by ballot of eight Clergymen and eight Laymen to serve as Deputies at any meeting of the Federate Council that may be held before the next Annual Convention of the Diocese. And in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention a Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, to consist of four Clergymen and four Laymen. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical members and Lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

SEC. 5. Whenever application shall be made to the Standing Committee for their consent to an application to a Court for leave to sell or mortgage real property, which at the time of such application is used by a congregation for regular religious services, the Standing Committee shall not give their consent until it shall have been made to appear to their satisfaction that notice of the application has been given to the congregation.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes, and Clergymen without Cure.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the authorities of such vacant Parish to consult with the Bishop of the Diocese before proceeding to fill the vacancy.

SEC. 4. Any Clergyman without cure resident in, or visiting, this Diocese and desiring to take temporary or occasional service therein shall signify to the Bishop his wish to officiate in this Diocese. A list of such Clergymen as shall be licensed by the Bishop for such duty shall be kept at the Diocesan House. And no Rector or Parish shall employ the services of any Clergyman without cure for more than one day, unless he shall have the written license of the Bishop.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment and Boundaries of Parishes and Mission Districts.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes and mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes; provided that not less than twenty days' previous notice of a time and place when the Standing Committee will hear any persons interested in the matter shall in each case be given to the incumbents of such parishes or mission districts as in the opinion of the Standing Committee may be affected by the proposed action. The Bishop's certificates of the determination or alteration of the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish or of a mission district forming part of a parish, to the Rector of the parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or, in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in its Book of Minutes; or, in the case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of his Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. Wherever a chapel or a mission is maintained by a parish, if it be included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, no separate district shall be assigned to it; but if it be not included within the parish boundaries assigned to the parish church, a separate district shall be assigned to it, which shall form part of the parish.

SEC. 3. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 4. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded, in the case of a parish, including a mission district forming part of a parish, shall constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof; in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society; and in the case of any other mission district shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission district is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission district; provided that nothing in this

Canon shall be taken to prevent such Rector, Superintendent or Archdeacon from conferring upon the Minister in charge of any mission district such authority in respect thereto as he may think fit.

SEC. 5. In any town or borough in which a parish or a mission district shall have been constituted, a new place of worship (unless upon the site of a former one) shall not be established, nor shall a new congregation be gathered, nor shall a congregation remove from one site or place of worship to another site or place of worship, unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license therefor; provided that the Standing Committee shall communicate a copy of the Bishop's proposed license, by mail or otherwise, before they act upon it, to the incumbent of the parish or mission district within which it is intended to establish such new place of worship or to which such congregation proposes to remove, and to the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts nearest to the site of the proposed church, chapel, or other place of public worship, and to the applicant for such license, with not less than twenty-days' notice of the time and place at which the Standing Committee will hear any person interested in the matter.

SEC. 6. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of the Archdeaconry in which it is proposed to prosecute such work, may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year unless with the license of the Bishop, nor shall any building for such work be erected unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall have issued his license for the establishment of a new place of public worship, or shall have constituted a new mission district or a new parish, for the continuance of such work.

SEC. 7. Nothing contained in this Canon shall be taken to restrict the power of the Bishop to license private chapels or chapels connected with institutions, nor to affect such chapels so licensed.

CANON XV.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the Day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of the salary of its Clergyman as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

SEC. 3. A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted annually to every Church in the Diocese by the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled 'The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York,' which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the Seamen's Church Institute of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary Work of the Diocese shall be conducted by a Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions, sitting as such as often as the business of the Board may demand.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively :

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.

2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.

3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland.

4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan.

5. The Archdeaconry of Duchess, comprising the County of Duchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish and Mission Station, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct, provided that such Lay Delegates from Mission Stations shall not have the right to vote upon any question involving the appropriation or apportionment of moneys. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries; [3] to have full management of its funds; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Archdeaconry, and appointed by the Bishop, and shall continue in office until his successor shall have been appointed. The nomination shall be made as soon as practicable after the occurrence of a vacancy in the office or the rejection of any previous nomination by the Bishop. It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Secretary and Treasurer, and make before the Annual Meeting of the Board of Diocesan Missions a full report of its year's work to the Board of Managers hereinafter described.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Diocesan Board of Managers, which Board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, Secretaries and Treasurers, and also five Clergymen and five Laymen, elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) It shall be the duty of this Board of Managers [1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by each Archdeaconry; [2] to devise general plans or making Mission Work more effective, and developing a greater missionary interest throughout the Diocese; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report containing the following items:

- a. Statement of Missionary Work done since last report.
- b. The names of the Missionaries and Stations.
- c. An account of Annual Receipts and Expenditures, comprising all amounts received and disbursed by each Archdeaconry.
- d. A list of the Parishes contributing, and of the sums contributed by each Parish to Diocesan Missions.
- e. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and a schedule of assessments upon the several Parishes.

(III.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, at a regularly called meeting, two of whom shall be Archdeacons, shall constitute quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop, one of the Archdeacons present shall be elected by the meeting to preside.

CANON XIX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds:

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to,

*“(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

“. . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

“With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

“1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

“2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry ; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

“3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

“4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given ceteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty.”

the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the said funds, be divided equally between them. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time ; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced ; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board ; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel, in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Sec. 1. Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation by Reason of Disability of a Minister.

Where it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Bishop, on the medical testimony, that by reason of incurable mental or physical disability a clergyman has become incapable of discharging his pastoral duties, it shall be competent for the Bishop, on the recommendation of the Vestry or Trustees of the Church, and upon rea-onable notice to all the parties concerned, to dissolve the pastoral relation between such clergyman and his church.

CANON XXII.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXIII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint; after which, the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, the Bishop Coadjutor, or, if there be no Bishop Coadjutor, the senior Presbyter present, shall take the Chair.

II. The Secretary of the last Convention, or, in case of his absence, some other person appointed by the Chair, shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

III. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified in pursuance of Canon II., Section 10.

IV. The Chair shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

V. A quorum being present, the Chair shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

1. Reading of the Rules of Order.

2. In case of the absence of the Bishop, or of his inability to act, and (if there be one) of the Bishop Coadjutor, the Convention shall elect a President.

3. The election of a Secretary, who shall have power to appoint three Assistant Secretaries.

4. The election of a Treasurer.

5. The appointment of six Standing Committees by the President:

(a) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention.

(b) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(c) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(d) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(e) On Canons, four Clergymen and four Laymen.

(f) On miscellaneous business, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

Any Standing Committee may meet during the intervals between Conventions, and may submit a report or reports to the succeeding Convention.

6. The appointment by the President of Inspectors of Election for the Standing Committee, for the Deputies to the Federate Council, and for the Deputies and for the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention: one Clergyman and one Layman for the clerical votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the lay votes of each election.

7. The Receiving and Referring of Reports, as follows; but the reading of such Reports, if already printed for circulation or ordered to be printed in the Journal, may be dispensed with, unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

- (1) Report of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, and the Admission of Parishes into Union with the Convention.
- (2) Report of the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention of New York.
- (3) Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and appointment of Trustees.
- (4) Report of the New York City Mission Society.
- (5) Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York.
- (6) Report of St. Stephen's College.
- (7) Report of Sunday-school Commission.
- (8) Report of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund.
- (9) Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

The election of Trustees of any of the foregoing Boards shall be in order in connection with the reception of their reports.

8. Miscellaneous business.

VI. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies to the Federate Council, and the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention.
5. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in their order.
6. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
7. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to him.
8. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
9. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
10. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
11. Report of the Committee on Canons.
12. Reports of Special Committees.
13. Miscellaneous business.

VII. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented or business unfinished the preceding day, in their order.
5. Miscellaneous business.

VIII. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not be finished, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached, or finished, on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

IX. The address of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor shall be in order at any time.

X. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

XI. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging to this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

XII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 P.M. to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 8 to 10 P.M.

XIII. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows:

The Clergy and the Lay Delegates of the Parishes entitled to vote shall present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant; and if such second vote shall not result in an election, further votes shall be taken until all the offices are filled or until the Convention shall otherwise order.

XIV. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and all motions, when required by the Chair, shall be reduced to writing.

XV. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as herein provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it—or to substitute another for it; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a motion to amend, or to substitute, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XVI. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XVII. Every resolution offered shall be considered at once unless refer ice be requested. Reference may be requested by five members of every resolution, except such as may accompany the report of a committee. Such resolution shall be referred without debate by the President to the appropriate committee, or, if in the opinion of the President there be no such committee, then to a special committee, of such number as the President shall designate.

XVIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIX. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XX. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XXI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XXII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XXIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XXIV. Votes shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XXV. In taking a vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXVI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, or without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority in the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXVII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXVIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered in the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIX. When a member is called to order by the Chair, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the Chair; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXX. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXXI. The majority of a quorum shall always be requisite to an election.

XXXII. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action shall, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability both of the Bishop and of the Bishop Coadjutor, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.
